REHABILITATION CREDIT

This Act became law on November 5, 1990 (Public Law 101-508; 26 U.S.C. 47). It is the current version of the certified rehabilitation section previously contained in Section 48(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 [26 U.S.C. 48(f)]. The Act has not been amended since the re-codification into Section 47. Public Law 95-600 (1978) and six amendments contributed to the development of the rehabilitation credit while it was codified in 26 U.S.C. 48(g).

Rehabilitation credit

26 U.S.C. 47(a),
Amount of credit

Section 47

(a) For purposes of section 46, the rehabilitation credit for any taxable year is the sum of—

(1) 10 percent of the qualified rehabilitation expenditures with respect to any qualified rehabilitated building other than a certified historic structure, and

(2) 20 percent of the qualified rehabilitation expenditures with respect to any certified historic structure.

26 U.S.C. 47(b),
Correct timing for claiming credit, in general

(b)(1) Qualified rehabilitation expenditures with respect to any qualified rehabilitated building shall be taken into account for the taxable year in which such qualified rehabilitated building is placed in service.

Progress expenditure-related recapture, coordination with subsection (d)

(2) The amount which would (but for this paragraph) be taken into account under paragraph (1) with respect to any qualified rehabilitated building shall be reduced (but not below zero) by any amount of qualified rehabilitation expenditures taken into account under subsection (d) by the taxpayer or a predecessor of the taxpayer (or, in the case of a sale and leaseback described in section 50(a)(2)(C), by the lessee), to the extent any amount so taken into account has not been required to be recaptured under section 50(a).

26 U.S.C. 47(c),
Definitions

(c) For the purposes of this section—

Qualified rehabilitated building, in general

(1)(A) The term “qualified rehabilitated building” means any building (and its structural components) if—

(i) such building has been substantially rehabilitated,

(ii) such building was placed in service before the beginning of the rehabilitation,

(I) the adjusted basis of such building (and its structural components), or

(II) $5,000.

The adjusted basis of the building (and its structural components) shall be determined as of the beginning of the 1st day of such 24-month period, or of the holding period of the building, whichever is later. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the determination of the beginning of the holding period shall be made without regard to any reconstruction by the taxpayer in connection with the rehabilitation.

Special rule for phased rehabilitations

(ii) In the case of any rehabilitation which may reasonably be expected to be completed in phases set forth in architectural plans and specifications completed before the rehabilitation begins, clause (i) shall be applied by substituting “60-month period” for “24-month period.”

(iii) Any expenditure attributable to the enlargement of an existing building.

Carryover of certain amounts

(ii) In the case of a building which is not a self-rehabilitated building, if for the taxable year—

Internal Revenue Code, Section 47

(II) the limitation of clause (i) exceeds the amount taken into account under paragraph (1)(B), then the amount of such excess shall increase the limitation of clause (i) for the succeeding taxable year.

Determination of percentage of completion

(D) The determination under subparagraph (C)(i) of the portion of the overall cost to the taxpayer of the rehabilitation which is properly attributable to rehabilitation completed during any taxable year shall be made, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, on the basis of engineering or architectural estimates or on the basis of cost accounting records. Unless the taxpayer establishes otherwise by clear and convincing evidence, the rehabilitation shall be deemed to be completed not more rapidly than ratably over the normal rehabilitation period.

25 U.S.C. 3005(d),
Sharing of information
