2012 SUPERINTENDENT'S COMPENDIUM

Of Designations, Closures, Permit Requirements and Other Restrictions Imposed
Under Discretionary Authority

Superintendent Dennis Carruth announced today that Pecos National Historical Park has released an update to the park's Superintendent's Compendium of Designations, Closures, Permit Requirements and Other Restrictions Imposed under Discretionary Authority.

The Compendium is the summary of park specific rules implemented under the discretionary authority of the park Superintendent. It serves as public notice with an opportunity for public comment, identifies areas closed for public use, provides a list of activities requiring a special use permit, and elaborates on those public use and resource protection regulations that pertain to the specific administration of the park.

The complete 2012 Superintendent's Compendium can be found on the park's website at <http://www.nps.gov/peco> or a copy can be obtained by calling the park at 505-757-7200.

Pecos National Historical Park is located 25 miles southeast of Santa Fe, New Mexico and is a unit of the National Park Service, under the administration of the U.S. Department of the Interior.
