

Brand your Cow!

At Pipe Spring, ranch-hands were responsible for taking care of the cattle and moving them from one pasture to the next and even moving cattle across great distances to get them to market. Oftentimes, cows owned by different ranchers ate and drank in the same places, so ranch-hands and cattlemen used brands to tell their animals apart.

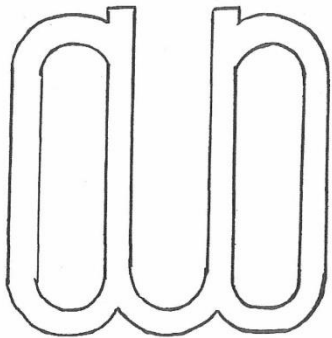

Directions: Below are examples of different cattle brands used at Pipe Spring. On your cow, design your own brand.
