

Pipe Spring

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Pipe Spring National Monument

Winsor Castle By Night

Tuesday, December 6, 2011 5-8 pm

Add Victorian charm to your holiday season with a starlight visit to Winsor Castle, the historic fort at Pipe Spring National Monument. It will be lit by the soft glow of lamps that capture the nostalgic feel of yesteryear. Warm up at the chuckwagon with hot cider.

Admission: $5, 15 and younger free, or free with pass.
15 miles west of Fredonia, 20 miles east of Colorado City.
928 643-7105
pisp_interpretation@nps.gov

The National Monument-Kaibab Band of Paiute Indians Visitor Center and Museum will be open. Dress warmly and bring a flashlight.

EXPERIENCE YOUR AMERICA™