

Volunteer Position Description for Beach Cleanup Volunteer

Supervisor: Volunteer Manager

Location: Various Trails Around Point Reyes

Project Duration: Variable

Time commitment: Variable

Minimum age: None

Goals/Outcome of Position:

To assist park staff in protecting wildlife and habitat by collection and removing man-made refuses. To also maintain the wilderness aspect of the park.

Description of Duties

- Work is easy to moderate
- Volunteers will walk along the beach and shoreline to collect and deposit in trash receptacles man-made beach refuse
- Mark, photograph (if possible), and report hazardous materials to leader

Tools and Equipment to be Used in the Performance of Duties

- Garbage bags
- Gloves

Training Provided and/or Required

- N/A

Knowledge/Skills/Experience Desired

- N/A

Special Requirements of the Position

The volunteer is required to provide and use gloves in the performance of the above duties.

Benefits to the Volunteer

- Satisfaction in helping to protect coastal wildlife and habitat

Work Environment

Accessing work locations may involve off-trail hiking. Hazards such as intense sun, heat/cold, poor footing, uneven surfaces, biting/stinging insects and poison oak may be encountered. Some beach refuse might have sharp edges or needles. Volunteers will take care to mark locations and inform volunteer manager for proper cleanup/disposal of those items.