

Burn Units in the Highway 1 Fuel Break - Point Reyes National Seashore

The Highway 1 burn units are burned on rotation to maintain an open grassland in between densely forested areas on Inverness Ridge and Bolinas Ridge. This creates a strategic fuel break in the Highway 1 corridor where the chance of vehicle related ignition is high.

