

Fishponds in Hawai'i were very important, they kept fish fresh for the people. Here at the royal fishponds, live fish from the ocean were kept for the ali'i (chiefs). Look, listen and discover the nature around the fishponds today.

DRAW what you see!

HONU HELPER PLEDGE

I _____, pledge to do my best to help protect the land, ocean, and animals here in Hawai'i and at home. I pledge to respect special places and not destroy them.

Park Ranger: _____

Date: _____

Pu'uhonua o Hōnaunau
National Historical Park

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

HONU HELPER ACTIVITY BOOKLET

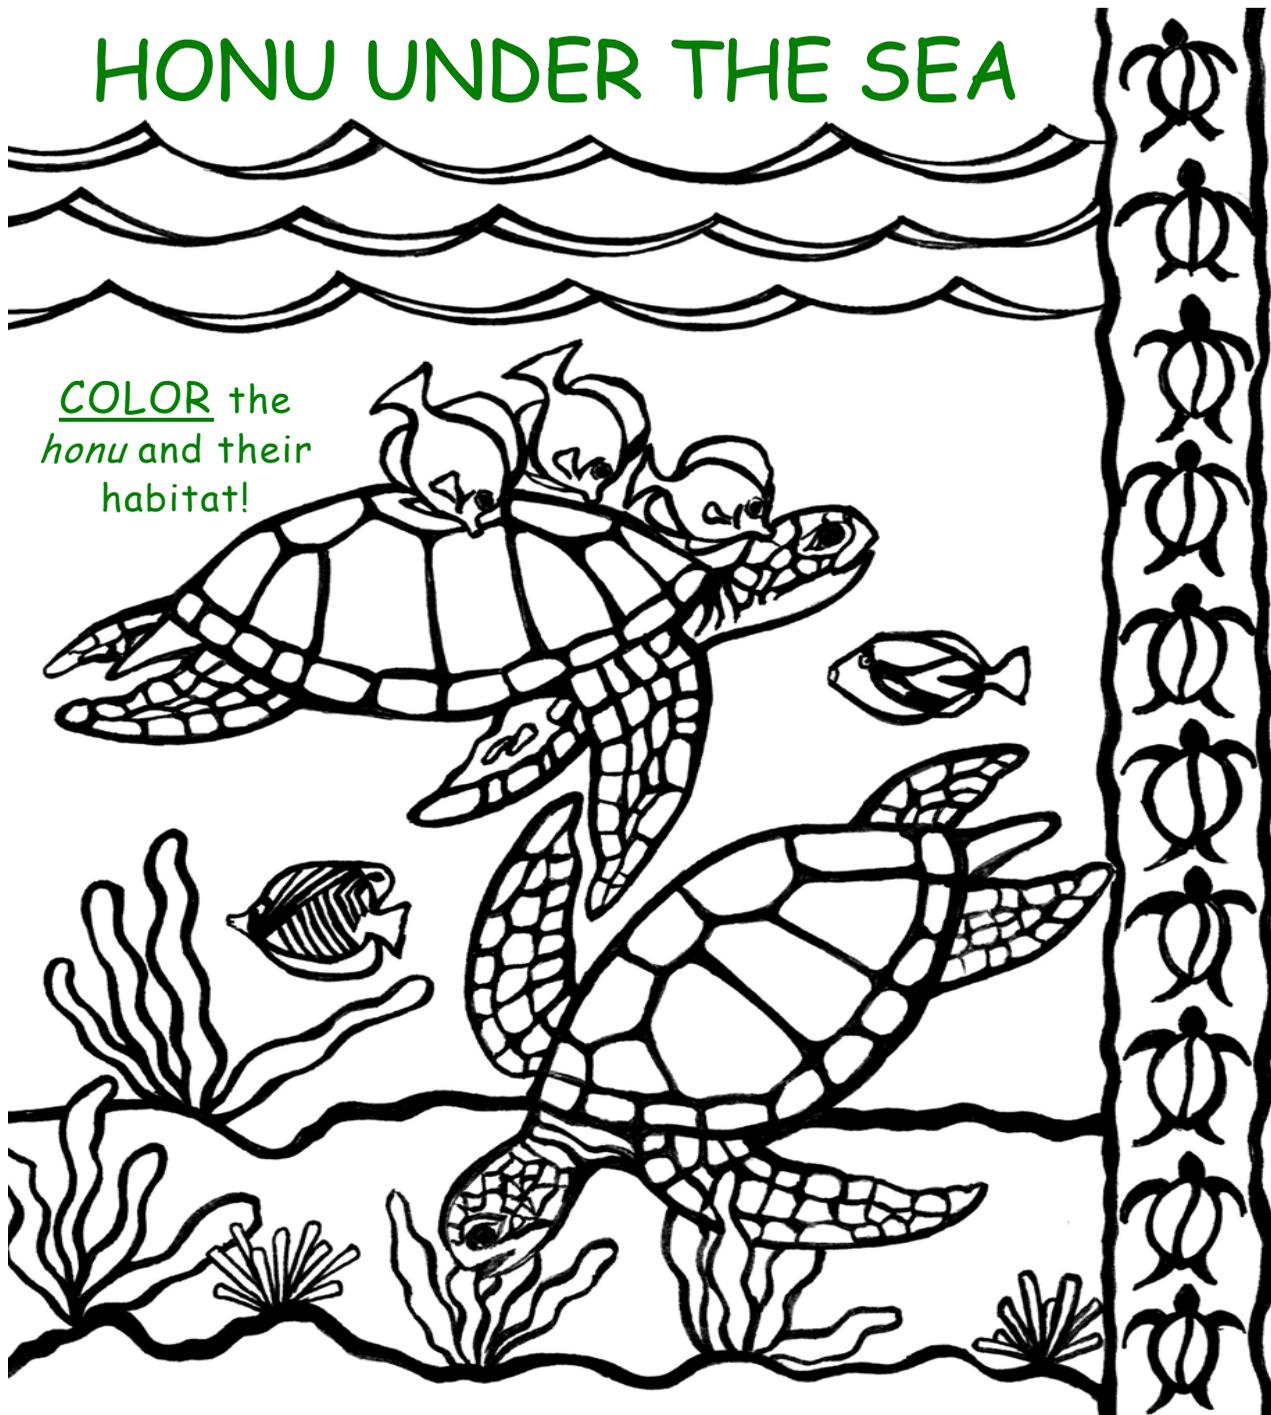

Aloha! Explore Pu'uhonua o Hōnaunau and complete 3 fun learning activities in this booklet to earn a Honu Helper reward.

RECOMMENDED FOR KEIKI (KIDS) AGES 3-6

HONU UNDER THE SEA

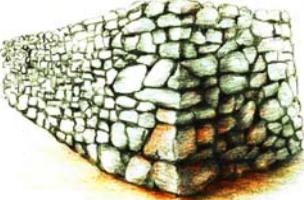

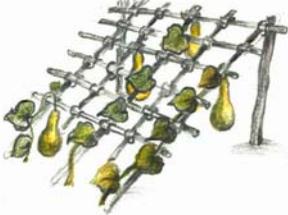

COLOR the honu and their habitat!

Honu (green sea turtles) can hold their breath underwater but have to come up for air. Honu eat limu, jellyfish and fish eggs. You might see honu feeding along the shore or basking in the sun.

SCAVENGER HUNT

MARK what you find with an "X", 3 in a row gets bingo!

 NONI A medicine plant used to heal cuts, wounds and infections.	 KŌNANE Games helped players gain strength and smarts.	 THE GREAT WALL Rocks were fit together like pieces of a puzzle.
The CANOE brought people, plants and animals to Hawai'i 	FISHTRAP  Traps, spears, hooks and lures were used to catch fish.	IPU are planted to use as a container, bottle or drum.
 LELE Where offerings to the gods were placed at the temple.	 NIU Provided materials for rope, baskets, food and more!	 HALA Expert weavers made canoe sails, mats and baskets.

Ki'i (images of the gods) are guardians of the place of refuge.

1. COUNT the ki'i you find in the royal grounds and pu'uhonua.

2. WRITE the number of ki'i you found in the box:

