

Timber Creek Campground Evening Programs

Sunday, September 3 – Monday, September 4, 2016

8:15 p.m. Timber Creek Amphitheater

Sunday, September 4

A Year in the Life of an Elk

Discover how elk adapt to survive in the rugged Rocky Mountain landscape throughout the seasons.

Monday, September 5

The Colorado River

Explore the importance of this majestic river on all types of life, from here at Rocky Mountain National Park, to around the country.

Tuesday, September 6 - Saturday, September 10, 2016

7:45 p.m. Timber Creek Amphitheater

Tuesday, September 6

Dreams of a Miner

The gold rush of 1849 made all of Colorado a potential source of wealth for those who dreamed of a better way of life. Who were these men? Who were the miners? Where did they come from? What were their lives like? We'll explore the answers to these questions and learn more about the men and women who helped establish the Code of the West.

Wednesday, September 7

The Poet's Playground

For a century National Parks have captivated writers and readers alike. Learn how these words spurred the creation of our National Parks, and how you can share your experiences in a new way.

Thursday, September 8

Bearable Bears

Discover what kinds of bears call Rocky Mountain National Park home and how you can stay safe in bear country.

Friday, September 9

National Parks and You!

Discover how making memories in national parks has influenced the legacy of the National Park Service, and how you can help carry that heritage on for the future.

Saturday, September 10

Catch Me if You Can

Learn about predator and prey interactions and how they play a role in Rocky Mountain National Park.