

Connections: The Far West and Civil War 2013 Summer Lecture Series

JUNE 28 Mike Vouri

Connections: Pig War to Civil War. Mike Vouri is the chief of interpretation and historian for San Juan Island National Historical Park and the author of five books about San Juan island history.

JULY 20 Lorraine McConaghy

Territorial Voices: A Civil War Reader's Theater. Lorraine McConaghy is the historian for the Seattle Museum of Science and Industry. Attendees read aloud authentic letters from soldiers and families.

AUGUST 2 Boyd Pratt

The Disputed Islands During the American Civil War. Historian Boyd Pratt describes how settlement proceeded during the joint military occupation at the height of the American Civil War when regular U.S. Army troops shared the island with Royal Marines.

AUGUST 10 Candace Wellman

American Officers, Indian Families and the Civil War. Historian Candace Wellman will discuss American Indian and First Nations families who trace their roots back to white U.S. Army officers (including George Pickett) and boundary survey officials.

August 17 Bruce Brown

Conversations with Crazy Horse. Bruce Brown, author of Mountains in the Clouds, talks about American Indian oral histories as they relate to the Battle of the Little Bighorn and Civil War veteran George A. Custer, a former colleague of San Juan officers.

July 3/Aug. 9 The Life & Times of General George Pickett

General George Pickett comes to life again from the frontier west to Civil War battlefields at the San Juan Community Theatre. Call the theater at 360-378-3210 or visit their website at sjct.org for ticket prices and showtimes.

All lectures at 7 p.m., at San Juan Island Library*
Free Admission with a reception to follow each lecture

For more information about Connections: The far West and Civil War and our speakers go to:

www.nps.gov/sajh

www.madrona.org

www.sjct.org (Pickett show only)

