Art exhibit extension:

Help the park continue this ecology celebration through art! Upon close of the Community Arts in the Park art exhibit, the National Park Service (NPS) plans to display winning contest entries through an extended exhibit June 1—July 5.

Check the box below to grant the NPS permission to extend the display time of your art entry. After the close of this extended exhibit, the artist (or parent of) will be contacted directly to arrange a summer art pick-up date.

Yes! Please use my art entry in an extended exhibit.

Authenticity and Liability Statement:

- Plagiarism is serious! Refrain from copying others work.
- Student, parent/guardian, and teacher: please read the statement before you sign this entry form:

I hereby certify that this is my original work and not copied or traced from published photos, magazines, books, illustrations, artists' published works, or other materials protected by copyright laws. I understand that the National Park Service (NPS) or other sponsors are not responsible for loss or damage to my artwork. I grant exclusive rights to the NPS and its designees to use, alter, copy, publish, and display my artwork for promotional purposes as they see fit without compensation to me, including the use of my photograph if taken at a related Community Arts in the Park program function. I understand that my entry will be photographed and made public via the park's website and will be put on display at American Camp. I understand that if my artwork is selected as a top contest entry, it will be displayed for public voting. I further understand that the NPS has the exclusive right to disqualify any entry that is questioned for authenticity.
