Darlene Wahl

Darlene Wahl served as an interpretive ranger at San Juan Island National Historical Park for more than 10 years, during which she founded the park's Fifth Grade habitats program and was a committed participant and planner of the annual Encampment at English Camp. Darlene has remained active in the island folk music scene as a solo performer and as a member of "Sugar on the Floor," a folk group that also includes her husband, Ken Arzarian, Lee McEnery and Michael Cohen. She also sings with the two Mikes in the Pig War skit each July 4 at the Pig War Picnic (right).

The Players

Mike Vouri

Mike's SJCT credits include Private Lives, Lost in Yonkers and The Laramie Project. He also appeared in Island Stage Left's productions of Macbeth, A Christmas Carol and Romeo and Juliet. Mike is Chief of Interpretation & Historian for San Juan Island National Historical Park. He is the author of five books and numerous journal articles on Pacific Northwest and San Juan Island history. He has performed "Pickett" with Michael Cohen for more than 14 years, the first production staged in July 1996 in the Gubelman Theatre at SJCT.

Michael Cohen

An Ecopsychology professor, author and researcher, the Smithsonian Institution cites Mike as one of the catalysts for the 1950's folk revival in New York City where he recorded and played professionally with the Shanty Boys Folk Trio and Oscar Brand. He and his group The Pig War Band perform weekly contra dances each at English Camp. He also plays at the San Juan Islands Farmers' Market. His musical family includes his brother, John Cohen of the New Lost City Ramblers and in-laws Pete and Mike Seeger. CONTACT: www.ecopsych.com
