

Save the Date:

Saturday, September 3, 2016

(Extended Hours at Quarai: 9am-11pm)

Featuring: Family activities in the afternoon and Owling in the evening

In honor of the National Park Service Centennial, we are holding a special event at Quarai. Bring your family to the Quarai Ruins on Saturday, September 3, 2016 for an afternoon and evening filled with activities. The afternoon kicks off at 3pm at the Quarai Picnic Area with:

- Ranger-led program on animal pelts and hides
- Special Junior Ranger Activity (prizes)
- 3:30-4:30pm Ranger-led tour of the ruins followed by a Build Your Own Lego Church activity
- Corn Grinding Challenge

The evening begins at 6pm at the Quarai Picnic Area:

- Evening birding (beginning at 6pm)
- Sunset photography of the ruins
- Owling (Owls typically begin hooting as it gets dark, so at dusk, we will lead a walk through the cottonwoods and look for owls)
- Star gazing

For more information, please call Jennifer DeMerritt at 505-847-2400 or Bethany Burnett at 505-847-2770