

Group Campsite Information

There are three group tent-camping areas in these parks: one in Sequoia National Park and two in Kings Canyon National Park. All are open from approximately June through September. Parking is limited in each; carpool if possible. Each site has flush toilets, drinking water, picnic tables, firepits with grills, and garbage collection. Several group sites are also available in neighboring Sequoia National Forest (see reverse for information). This is bear habitat; all food must be stored properly. Read regulations posted in the campgrounds.
