The Basics of Family Camping

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Shenandoah National Park
Education Division

Program Description

The Basics of Family Camping
Saturday and Sunday, July 10-11, 2010

Want to do something really special with your family in Shenandoah National Park? Experience a long-standing American tradition and spend the night under the stars camping! Learn from park rangers and camping experts how to pitch a tent, build a campfire, plan and prepare meals, explore nature with your children, and how to Leave No Trace, while creating memories to last a lifetime. No equipment? No camping experience? No problem! Tents, camping equipment, food, and instruction are provided at these fun and educational events. Recommended for families who have always wanted to go camping but never had the time to learn. The seminar will be held rain or shine.

Registration

The Basics of Family Camping seminar cost is $50 for one adult and child (5–12 years old), and $10 for each additional family member. Space is limited to 21 participants. Reservations are required. To register, visit Shenandoah National Park's website: http://www.nps.gov/shen/planyourvisit/resource_seminars.htm
For more information, contact the park's Education Office:

Resource Seminar Series

Resource Seminars are designed for those who want to get to know their national park a little more personally. Seminars provide a more in-depth experience to learn from scientists, researchers, educators, and other experts about resource issues and recreational opportunities in Shenandoah National Park. The Shenandoah National Park Resource Seminars are co-sponsored by the Shenandoah National Park Association and ARAMARK, the park's official concessioner.
