Today Shenandoah National Park is visited by over one million people a year! Visitors hike, drive Skyline Drive, explore, and learn about the Park.

In 1939 Skyline Drive is finally _________. It runs 105 miles through Shenandoah National Park. Starting in Front Royal and ending at Rockfish Gap. It takes about 4 hours to drive top to bottom!

In 1931 ground was broken to start work on ____ Drive. A road that would follow the ridge line of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

In 1935 Shenandoah National Park is established!

In 1926 came an ________ to create an Eastern Park in the Western tradition. This Park would serve as a large open wilderness area for people in the East, like Yosemite or Yellowstone in the West.

In ___ Shenandoah will celebrate its 100th birthday!

Today Shenandoah National Park is visited by over one million people a year! Visitors hike, drive Skyline Drive, explore, and learn about the Park.

Follow Skyline Drive through the history of Shenandoah—fill in the blank in the boxes. Look for clues in the road signs!