Be a National Park Ranger this summer!

Apply for the Teacher-Ranger-Teacher Program Summer 2009

Join the National Park Service! Put on the Ranger uniform, receive training, and work at Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore for eight weeks between June and August. Then, take your experiences back to the classroom to share with your students and colleagues.

Teachers receive a $300/week stipend, a uniform, training, and housing at the park (if needed). Government housing is in or near Empire, MI, and usually shared with one or more seasonal staff members.

The Teacher-Ranger will have an opportunity to work on various projects and activities including, but not limited to, conducting Junior Ranger and interpretive programs, writing and/or reviewing curriculum-based school activities for all grades, participating in outreach efforts, and working behind the information desk at the Visitor Center.

For additional information, a complete position description, and an application, please visit www.nps.gov/slbe/forteachers and click on the Teacher-Ranger-Teacher link.

Application Deadline is Friday, March 20, 2009

The intent of the Teacher-Ranger-Teacher program is to provide well-rounded experiences for teachers serving as park rangers in national parks. From their experience, teachers develop National Park Service materials to be shared with their students in the classroom and/or on the web. The program will focus on teachers from schools that have diverse student populations.
