

NPS Photos

Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, Electric Passenger Trailer #315, #320, #330, #333, #334, #335, #343, #346.

Electric Passenger Trailer, #315, #320, #330, #333, #334, #335, #343, #346. Class: ET. Builder: Pullman Car and Manufacturing Company, 1925. Seating capacity: 82. DL&W contracted with the American Car and Foundry Company to rebuild the cars into electric trailer coaches for New Jersey suburban commuter service. Renumbered as electric cars in 1930 to 2000 series. Car #333 became #2233. Renumbered in 1950s to 3200 series then to the 3000 series. Part of the 1976 Conrail acquisition then to New Jersey Transit Authority. Acquired from NJ Transit in 1985 by Steamtown Foundation. Some of the cars are used in Steamtown NHS excursion train.