FIRST KENTUCKY VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.

This regiment was organized at Camp Clay, Ohio, in June, 1861, under Colonel James V. Guthrie, and was mustered into the United States service on the 4th day of June, 1861, by Major S. Burbank, 1st United States Infantry. After organization it was ordered to the Department of West Virginia, where it performed much valuable service in the early engagements of the war. Colonel Guthrie resigned in December, 1861, and Colonel David A. Enyart was commissioned in his stead, and commanded the regiment through its whole enlistment. In January, 1862, the regiment was ordered to the Department of the Cumberland, and took an active part in the advance on Nashville, and participated in the following engagements, in which loss was sustained, viz: Gauley Bridge, Red House, and Peytonia, Virginia; Shiloh, Tennessee; Corinth, Mississippi; Stone River, Tennessee; Chickamauga, Georgia. Company E, of this regiment, was detailed as artillery, in 1861, by order of the War Department, at the instance of General Roscerans, and was known as the 1st Kentucky Independent Battery. The regiment was mustered out of service on the 18th day of June, 1864, at Covington, Kentucky.
