TWENTY-THIRD KENTUCKY VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.

The 23d Kentucky Infantry was organized in December, 1861, at Camp King, Kentucky, by Col. Marcellus Mundy, and was mustered into the United States service by Major Jno. R. Edie, 15th United States Infantry. The officers of this regiment having failed to furnish a history of its early organization, marches, &c., the following meager statement is taken from the official records on file in the Adjutant General's Office of Kentucky. Immediately after organization it was ordered to the front and joined the Army of the Cumberland, and participated with it in all the campaigns

"On fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread,
And glory guards with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead."

In compliance with the requirements of General Orders No. 19, of 1862, from the War Department, and in accordance with the reports of Boards convened to examine into the services rendered, and by the authority of the Lieutenant General Commanding the Armies of the United States, the 23d Kentucky Infantry had inscribed upon its colors the names of the fol-
