FIFTH KENTUCKY VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.

The officers of this regiment having failed to furnish a history of its marches, &c., the following is gathered from the records of this office:

It was organized in the summer of 1861 under Lovell H. Rousseau, as Colonel, and was mustered into the United States service on the 9th day of September, 1861, at Camp Joe Holt, Indiana, by W. H. Sidell, Major 15th United States Infantry, and Mustering Officer.

L. H. Rousseau was promoted to Brigadier General October 5th, 1861, and Harvey M. Buckjey was then commissioned Colonel, and he resigned January 26th, 1863. Wm. W. Berry was, on the 9th of February, 1863, mustered as Colonel, and commanded the regiment until its muster-out of service at Louisville, Kentucky, September 14th, 1864. A portion of the regiment veteranized, and at the muster-out of the regiment the recruits and veterans were transferred to the 2d Kentucky Veteran Cavalry.

It is with regret that a report of this regiment is published without a full history of its career, it having been one of the very first Kentucky regiments which "rallied around the flag" and formed part of Rousseau's gallant command, who, by their timely occupation of Muldrough's Hill, kept at bay the rebel forces, and saved Kentucky from being drawn entirely within the enemy's lines.

The difficulties under which the regiment was raised, having been organized at the time that Kentucky was resting upon her neutrality, assure to its officers the greatest credit for their success.

At the alarm of an invasion of Kentucky by Buckner, this gallant command was thrown out in defense of Louisville by General, then Colonel, Rousseau, and held them in check until reinforcements arrived from Ohio and Indiana, and forever refuted the idea of a State standing in a neutral position when the integrity or unity of the nation was assailed.

From the time the 5th crossed the Ohio river from Camp Joe Holt, recruiting progressed rapidly throughout Kentucky. Having been thoroughly disciplined during the time it was encamped at Joe Holt, it took the lead of, and was the nucleus around which, the Grand Army of the Cumberland was formed. It served with distinction, and gained repeatedly praise from the Department commanders. Besides numerous others, it participated in the following named battles in which loss was sustained, viz: Bowling Green, Shiloh, Stone River, Chickamauga, Mission Ridge, Rocky Face Ridge, Resaca, Dallas, Kenesaw, Atlanta, Dalton, Orchard Knob, Liberty Gap, and Blain's Cross Roads.
