Not So Long Ago—

ADRIAN FOOTE, eighth-generation descendant of John and Priscilla Alden, built this cabin to shelter his wife, six children and his mother-in-law. It stood eight miles southeast of Knox on land granted by the government at the close of the Civil War. Ray G. Keiser, 2002 Beverly Pl., owner of the photo, is Foote's grandson. From left, Alden, Adrian Foote, Eber, Ella (Keiser's mother), Mrs. Thornton (Mrs. Foote's stepmother), Anna, Laura, Mrs. Foote, Minerva. Descendants of the Schultz family, purchasers of the farm from Foote 60 years ago, are only second in ownership since the property's acquisition from the Indians.
