Silas Clark
Walter Clark } were brothers who joined Union Army in Kentucky — from area near the MAcon/SMith/Jackson County area (Tenn.)

fought in Battle of Stones River. Silas was slightly wounded — later resigned on basis of trouble with his eyesight.

— Some question of one of them being promoted, the other demoted later (?)

This info, papers, and the photo were brought to the park by their descendant, David Good, of Murfreesboro — ~~893-8938~~ February, 1992

233-5585 H

868-1582 W

CAPT. SILAS CLARK

brother - WALTER M CLARK

9th KENTUCKY INFANTRY - were both in Battle of Stone River.

FROM: DAVID GOAD, Murfreesboro 890-8938
their descendant.