Mr. Lewis:

Back in September 2008 we talked on the phone and sent a few e-mails concerning Grave H. 3020 in the Stones River National Cemetery. We discussed the possibility of the grave marker being misidentified as A.J Cleek Company A, 4th Tennessee Mounted Infantry. I have included in the paperwork of all the proof I can gather that the soldier buried in the grave is Sylvanus Jackson Cleek. I have included his service record where it shows him being captured and killed by a band of ~~guerillas~~ Guerrillas led by Blackwell and Tom Kelly. Also a copy from the pages of the book by Michael R. Bradley titled "With Blood + Fire Life behind Union Lines in Middle Tennessee, 1863-65" describing the incident. I also included a copy of A.J. Cleek's service records, a 1870 Marshall County census showing he survived the war, on the census the name Cleek is misspelled as Cleake and is highlighted at the bottom of the page. Included in the packet is my family research material containing proof of my relationship to Sylvanus as being my Great, Great Uncle. His sister Mary + Barden S. Russell are my Great, Great grand-parents and Sylvanus was Mary's brother. If you have any questions feel free to call me or email me. Thanks for your assistance in all this.
