

Zadock Duncan Documents

Card Numbers Form

Duncan, Zadock D.

Co. I, 34 Tennessee Inf.

(4 Confederate Reg't [sic] Tenn. Inf.)

Became Part of 1 Consol'd [sic] Reg't [sic] Tenn. Inf. About Apr. 9, '65.

(Confederate.)

Private Lieutenant

CARD NUMBERS.

1 50039849

2 9884

3 9952

4 040012

5 0071

6 0141

7 0196

8 034057

9 3981

10 46531844

11 45840751

12 798938

13 762932

14 878420

15 46756698

16 47263005

17 46589623

[spaces 18 to 38 are blank]

Number of medical cards herein 0

Number of personal papers herein 0

BOOK MARK: [blank]

See also [blank]

Handwritten Deposition of Zadock Duncan February 1909

State of Tenn

Coffee County

Zadoc [sic] D. Duncan, being duly sworn, makes oath that he was captured, June 23 1863 near Concord Coffee County Tennessee, by Col[illegible] Wilder's Cavalry, and taken to Johnson Island, and there until 26 or 27 February 1865 then affiant was sent to Akin on James River 12 miles below Richmond Affiant got there 3 March 1865, was parolled [sic], and sent South until 1st June 1865, affiant went then to Augusta, and was there when Lee's army surrendered, then Affiant left there and came to Chattanooga all the armies had surrender before affiant left Augusta then when I got to Chattanooga they sent affiant to Nashville before they would permit him to go home, at Nashville on the 14 May 1865, affiant took the oath of alligence [sic] before they would let him affiant further states, that he was injured in the fight at Murfreesboro, on the front line, whilst holding a comrades [sic] head, who had been struck in the head by a piece of a shell and whilst in a stooping position, a cannon Bal [sic] struck affiant on the coat collar [sic] cutting it into [sic], and broke the skin slightly, but jarred affiant [sic] left arm at the shoulder, and was thrown to the ground unconcious [sic], and remained unconscious the most of that night and was taken off the field and was under treatment about two weeks, when affiant returned to his command, but his left shoulder arm was so paralyzed that ever since he has been unable to raise his left arm up even with his shoulder or even half so high, also at Triune whilst in the Cavalry service his hors [sic], whilst in a fight jumped forward throwing affiant on the pommel of his saddle, mashing his right testicle, so that the string of said seed has greatly enlarged, and gives affiant pain, and disables him from walking and from work affiant states that these two hurts has disabled him, from work and from walking, since they occurred and such happened whilst in the service of the Confederate Governet [sic]

Sworn and subscribed to before me this Feby 22, 1902

[illegible name]

D.C.

Z.D. Duncan

Handwritten Deposition July 1902

State of Tennessee

County of Coffee

Zadock D. Duncan makes oath, in due form of law, States [crossed out] that he is unable, to prove that the unnatural growth on his right seed and the cord [sic] the testicle, was caused by his horse jumping and pitching him on the front of his Saddle, because John McCall, William Roberts, Joseph Ken and Dr Savanrin and wagoner in the 4 Tenn [sic] Cavalry, who were present, near Triune in a cavalry fight, are dead at which time and place the injury occurred

Subscribed

Z. D Duncan

and sworn to July 22 1902

R.M. Vannoy

Notary Public [illegible]