March, THURSDAY, 10. 1864.

Remained at Columbus
Inspection of horses Saddles Bridles arms and &c

FRIDAY, 11.

Remained at Columbus Great activity with the command preparing for a march

SATURDAY, 12.

Received orders to be ready to start
the next morning
with five day rations

March, SUNDAY, 13. 1864.

The order countermanded
- did not receive at Columbus instructions to march

MONDAY, 14.

Started our march went to Aberdeen and encamped

TUESDAY, 15.

Continued our march
wet and cold through the day and encamped for the night near Okarango

March, WEDNESDAY, 16. 1864.

Continued our march north with the Mobile and Ohio railroad and encamped at Tupelo

THURSDAY, 17.

Continued our march north with the railroad and encamped near Booneville

FRIDAY, 18.

Continued our course Viewed the Great fortifications at that place, The Battle field & crossed the Miss & Tenn State line, And encamped in Tennessee

March, SATURDAY, 19. 1864.

Continued our march went through Pardy Mcnary city and encamped on the Jackson road

SUNDAY, 20.

Went to Jackson and encamped our average travail being about forty miles per day

MONDAY, 21.

Remained at Jackson resting our stock preparing rations and &c

March, TUESDAY, 22. 1864.

Started north passed through Mayfield Trenton Princeton and encamped having travailed over forty miles

WEDNESDAY, 23.

Continued our march passed the Tenn & Kentucky State line near Dukedom and encamped. A portion of the command under Col Hawkins went to Union City and captured over 500 prisoners &c

THURSDAY, 24.

Continued our march went through mayfield started Padukay Drove the pickets into the fort and Barracks captured Rebel camps and equipage, Commissary Quarter master and medical stores Stores, Ambulances &c Some 40 or 50 prisoners and retired March, FRIDAY, 25. 1864.

Went to Padukay with a flag of truce Returned went to Mayfield and encamped

SATURDAY, 26.

Persued our way back passed through Dukedom went to Princeton & encamped

SUNDAY, 27.

Persued our course passed through Trenton and encamped

March, MONDAY, 28. 1864.

We arrived at Jackson Having averaged over ~~four~~ forty miles per day fighting two Battles capturing about 600 prisoners 700 or 800 horses with various other ~~ingredients~~

March, THURSDAY, 31. 1864.

Went from Pochahontas to Bolivar and encamped, Wet and cold

TUESDAY, 29.

Remained at Jackson resting, and talking over our trip

April, FRIDAY, 1.

Returned to Jackson Greatly fatigued.

WEDNESDAY, 30.

Received marching orders Started on the Purdy road turned and went Strong Montezuma and encamped near Pochahontas having travailed over fifty miles that day

SATURDAY, 2.

Remained at Jackson resting for we were in much in need of it

April, SUNDAY, 3. 1864.

Remained at Jackson every thing Remarkably quiet

April, WEDNESDAY, 6. 1864.

Nothing new to relate the Regiments very active

MONDAY, 4.

Remained in camp Going through the regulars routine of camp duty

THURSDAY, 7.

Rumored orders to cook and keep on hand four days rations and be ready to start at any time.

TUESDAY, 5.

Remained at Jackson Preparing for Action

FRIDAY, 8.

All very quiet Quiet Rode for the Day

April, SATURDAY, 9. 1864.

A portion of the corps moving and changing positions

10th

Received orders to be ready to start the next morning with four days rations

SUNDAY, 10.

Started on our march about Passed through Brownsville, Haywood County a rainy night Bivouacked with orders to start the next morning at five O'clock.

MONDAY, 11.

Started on our march Northwest. Passed through Brownsville Haywood County, and bivouacked with orders to be ready to start at five Oclock next morning. A rainy night

April, TUESDAY, 12. 1864.

We arrived at Ft Pillow and attacked the Enemy early in the day The Fort was defended by about 4,50 Blacks and 250 whites We Captured about 20 Blacks & 190 Whites, and killed the remainder We demolished the Place

WEDNESDAY, 13.

After Taking possession of the Fortifications and Ordinances Stores and removing the Guns, we Started back towards Jackson and encamped for the night near Brownsville

THURSDAY, 14.

Continued our march and arrived at Jackson Morning. Travelled about 140. miles in four days, Fought eight hours Killed 500 yanks and negroes Capt Bise pieces of artillery with all of their Stores

April, FRIDAY, 15. 1864.

Remained at Jackson
awaiting for the command to come up with all of their Goods and Stores

Gen Beauford went into Pa Hurker capturing a large lot of horses

SATURDAY, 16.

Remained at Jackson
Received orders to prepare rations and be ready to start the next morning

SUNDAY, 17.

The order counter
-manded and we remained at Jackson

My Balls quite fashionable the last week I went to the Episcopalian Church

April, MONDAY, 18. 1864.

The command remain
-ed at Jackson.
Twenty of the compa-ny went South as an escort to Governor
I G Harris

TUESDAY, 19.

Talking of going South early now we are here with a better pair feet of Stockings Details of the company going South today

WEDNESDAY, 20.

Remained at Jackson
the command very busily getting up conscripts Deserters Horse thieves &c

April, THURSDAY, 21. 1864.

Remained at Jackson
Daily arrival of Conscripts and Deserters, A great many volunteering
The command
increasing rapidly

FRIDAY, 22.

Remained at Jackson
Nothing new
The command Continues in the same business

SATURDAY, 23.

All quiet will not any be change
A Heavy rain in the P M

April, SUNDAY, 24. 1864.

Remained at Jackson
All quiet
I went to church Considerable activity in the conscript department

MONDAY, 25.

Remained at Jackson
The weather assumes the appearance of Spring warm and beautiful

TUESDAY, 26.

Remained at Jackson
Nothing New

April, WEDNESDAY, 27. 1864.

Remained at Jackson All quiet with the exception of the conscripts Recruits which is very active

Evening visits with ladies quite fashionable

THURSDAY, 28.

Remained at Jackson Arrival of conscripts daily Some preparation for a march Balls passing nearby every night

FRIDAY, 29.

Remained at Jackson Received orders to prepare five days rations and be ready to leave on the first of may Heavy rains

April, SATURDAY, 30. 1864.

Remained at Jackson Attended a Picnic ~~every pleasant day~~ Given by Miss Mollie Hubbard's School, Moved to the Mansion House in consequence of a rain and went to dancing

May, SUNDAY, 1.

The order postponed and we remained on account of the heavy rains the day before

The wagons and a portion of the conscripts Started, Attended the Burial of Col. Reed Went to Church

MONDAY, 2.

Started on our march Crossed the Hatchey River at Bolivar Had a light engagement with the enemy at Bolivar and then moved off, Leaving two Killed

May. TUESDAY, 3. 1864.

Continued our march South went near Bolivar and encamped

May. FRIDAY, 6. 1864.

Remained near Tupelo Resting and recruiting our Stock Which is in bad condition
On duty two days

WEDNESDAY, 4.

Pursued our course towards Tupelo Arriving within eight miles of There and encamped for the night

SATURDAY, 7.

Remained at Tupelo Nothing to relate Spent the time in entertaining of any distinguished guest

THURSDAY, 5.

We arrived at Tupelo Having Travelled between 20 and 30 miles per day carrying two days forage for our horse And four days ration for man

SUNDAY, 8.

Remained at Tupelo News from the Trans Mississippi Department and the army of North Virginia army very good

May, MONDAY, 9. 1864.

Remained at Tupelo
The News from the rebel army Continues favourable

TUESDAY, 10.

Remained at Tupelo
All the news favourable to the rebels

WEDNESDAY, 11.

Remained at Tupelo
All quiet — The weather warm in the day.
but very cool at night

May THURSDAY, 12. 1864.

Remained at Tupelo
The news from Virginia Dalton
And the Trans Mississippi. Very favourable Wrote a letter to my Wife

FRIDAY, 13.

No change in camp Remained at the same place Going through the regular routine of Duty

SATURDAY, 14.

Remained at Tupelo
At Sunset received to day All passed off well

May. SUNDAY, 15. 1864.

Remained at Tupelo
All quiet in camp Great Cagerness to get the news.

May. WEDNESDAY, 18. 1864.

Remained at Tupelo
The news from every Department of the army continues to very Cheering

MONDAY, 16.

Remained at Tupelo
Great Cagerness to get the news which is quite favorable from the trans
Mississippi Department Also from the Virginia army Received orders to prepare five ration to be ready [illegible] at 12 M

THURSDAY, 19.

Remained at Tupelo
Going through the regulars Routine of Duty
The news continues good

TUESDAY, [illegible]

The order countermanded
and we remained at Tupelo

FRIDAY, 20.

No change of the Command
The news Continues favorable

May, SATURDAY, 21. 1864.

Remained at Tupelo No change in the command, The weather warm and dry

SUNDAY, 22.

Remained at Tupelo considerable activity with the command preparing for a march

MONDAY, 23.

Received orders to prepare for march the next day The Order countermanded and we remained at Tupelo

May, TUESDAY, 24. 1864.

Remained at Tupelo Received orders for Thirty of the company to be ready to start the next morning

WEDNESDAY, 25.

Thirty of the company went to wards Pipy on a Scout returning Some deserters the remainder of the company remained at Tupelo

THURSDAY, 26.

Remained at Tupelo Doing through the regular routine of duty

May, FRIDAY, 27. 1864.

Remained at Tupelo
The 26th. Had hail some off. Scouted the woods over in the neighbourhood of Tupelo capturing fifteen deserters and returned

SATURDAY, 28.

Remained at Tupelo
nothing of interest occured

SUNDAY, 29.

Remained at Tupelo Received orders to prepare rations and be ready to move in the morning
first before daylight.
The order was countermanded

May, MONDAY, 30. 1864.

Remained at Tupelo
Every thing very active Preparing for a march Men from Virginia and Georgia being received

Some Federal prisoners arrived Capt Hy
Reedy

TUESDAY, 31.

Remained at Tupelo Ordered to be ready to start
the next morning
The commands very active preparing for a move

June, WEDNESDAY, 1.

Started on our march Travelled north of east went through Fulton and encamped for

June, THURSDAY 2. 1864.

Continued our march Crossed the Miss and Ala State line and encamped Our average travel being about thirty five miles per day

FRIDAY, 3.

Started on our march west to Pontotoc received Orders changing the programme Our orders being countermanded, we turned right about and took up our march back on the same road

SATURDAY 4.

Passed over corse back on the same road travelled very hard and encamped early Moreover it has rained nearly every time we left Tupelo

June, SUNDAY, 5. 1864.

Started early and went to Tupelo for breakfast Arrived here greatly fatigued and very hungry Received orders to get every thing in Order to Start the next morning at daylight

MONDAY, 6.

Remained at Tupelo Resting and preparing for a move
Our Order for a march suspended until the next day

TUESDAY, 7.

Started on our march west north with the Railroad and encamped at Baldwin, Very heavy rains and the waters high