Respected Brother and sister it is with Pleasure that i sit down to inform you that i am still alive yet and well. i have neglected writing to you so long but i think my letter will be excepTable. as i have not had Eny pay for 6 months and no paper or stamps i could not write as i would i gathered a Half bushel of hickernuts and sold them for 75¢ and got some paper We have had 3 days quite wet weather

But to day is pleasant and i have bin a plastering. my shanty. we have all expected to see Old hood here but i guess he has something else in view. i was Down to Block house No 4 when wheeler was around through Here. his men was all around us for 3 Days. we would shoot at them. every time we could git a chance Wheeler had 7000 men Old hood has 30000 men. forrest has 15000. Every thing is quiet here now but i cant tell how long it will last

Dr. i dont care a dam i have spent most 3 years in the Servous and i cant tell as it is any nearer to a close then it was 3 years ago i guess i will close for this time rite soon

Well as usual. and busy
To work on the block house
We are busy a preparing Road. rebble. hood they say
He is a coast the Tenn Esee river and advancing On. Murfreesboro. and if so you may look for. some News of some kind. Hood is got 30 000 men. and if he has that many men he Will give us a hard one
But i suppose. General
Thomas. is not a lying idle But if he comes we will Give him the best we fastend in the inside Well. Jary i will not bother your head any more on that. i had a letter from Thomas he was well when he rote. if you want to rite to him Direct to Co 47 regiment in the first place the Timber is put up on end with a Mortis on the Low end and a sill with a groove in the middle of it and the upright Sticks fits in it after it is all around the Space of ground they want to put a nother row of Timber rite flat down on the out side Cold Casing when that is done there is Loops holes Cut to Shoot out of next a bag full of dirt Shovde upon the out side
