Description:
This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1860 United States Federal Census, the Eighth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1860 Federal Census.

☞ Address: "Chief of the Record and Pension Office, War Department, Washington, D. C."

Record and Pension Office,

WAR DEPARTMENT,

Washington, May 27, 1893.

Respectfully returned to the Commissioner of Pensions.

The charge of desertion against the within-named soldier is of such a nature that final action thereon cannot be taken solely upon the record and the papers in the case now before this Department.

If, however, direct application is made to the Department by the claimant, and such evidence or information as may be called for is furnished, the charge will be thoroughly investigated. The decision reached, based upon the result of such investigation and the law applicable to the case, will be promptly communicated to the Commissioner of Pensions.
