174TH REGIMENT OHIO VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.

174th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Chase, O., from August 18 to September 21, 1864, to serve one year. It was ordered to proceed to Nashville, Tenn., and to report to Gen. W. T. Sherman. The Regiment reached Nashville Sept. 26, and was immediately ordered to proceed to Murfreesboro. It remained at Murfreesboro until the 27th of October, when it was ordered to report to the commanding officer at Decatur, Ala. It was then moved to the mouth of Elk River, leaving, on the way, four companies as a garrison at Athens, Ala. The Regiment soon returned to Decatur, where it remained until the 26th of November, when the town was evacuated. It then returned to Murfreesboro, where it remained during the siege (Dec. 4), and participated in the battle of Overall's Creek. On the 7th of December the Regiment was engaged in the battle of the Cedars. On the 17th of January it moved down Tennessee and up the Ohio River to Cincinnati. It was then ordered to Washington City, which place it reached on the 29th of January, 1865. The Regiment remained in camp at Washington City until the 21st of February, when it started for North Carolina, reaching Fort Fisher on the 23d. It marched to Morehead City, reaching there on the 24th, and Newbern on the 25th. It took part in the battle of Wise's Fork, at Kinston, N. C.

Under the order mustering out volunteers whose term of service expired previous to the 1st of October, the One Hundred and Seventy-Fourth was mustered out June 28, 1865.

175th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE YEAR'S SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Dennison, O., in October, 1864, to serve one year. It was ordered to Columbia, Tenn., where it performed post and garrison duty in the town, and was also engaged in guarding the Tennessee and Alabama Railroad. In the advance of Hood one of the Regiment's outposts was captured, south of Columbia, while the remainder of the Regiment fell back to Franklin, and took part in the battle at that place on the 10th of November. The Regiment then fell back to Nashville, and took position in Fort Negley, where it remained during the battle, and on the 25th of December was again ordered to Columbia, and engaged in the usual garrison duties, and in guarding the railroad bridges. It was mustered out June 27, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.
