April 28th 1863

Friend Lyne,

I am happy to say you long looked for little cause to have a few days ago. You forget where you was in the service of U-Saw how eagerly and anxiously yourself as well as the rest of us would seek the mail no matter how thin it came and with what interest and joy every period the contents of the letters & papers from the friends at home; the news contained therein, whether old or fresh, sad or gay, or frohater interests always relieved to a great degree a certain monotonous and dull ~~of~~ state of mind.

Since the 18th or 19th of March the 18th and 19th Regt QMs have been you my kindest regards to your father and if you need money will again be glad to call and see my Aunt and Cousin who if not improper what do you leave A for? Dixie I don't know

two or three hundred, only
I hope so

Respectfully,
Wm. H. H. H. H.

6 miles from Murfreesboro and a pursuit and most agreeable Spring we have had of it, so far.
Fishing, and visiting our neighbors (of the latter we have many) and the principles amusements, while for the winter we get Eggs, Butter, Hick, and many other little rarities in which Soldiers do not share I judge, Lt Col Maest and I live and live together and our Cherbourg is always considered by the "Gay and Spectious" of the Army, to be the "Hot Spot" for all games of amusement, "dixiting", and "good living" drinks not excepted.

I enclose you our advertisement of the Commercial which is one of our latest. The result you may be assured was "decidedly rich".
Our loss at the Battle of ones River was 178 killed, wounded, and missing, Col Hawkins,

3
Lieut Murphy, Whitcomb, and Fox were killed. Capt Maest, Lieut Ray, Gold and Stone were wounded, 303 men were killed, and over one hundred wounded, and several taken prisoners, we were in the general Engagements, the first and most valuable ones on Wednesday 31st Dec, and the 2nd on Friday 2nd January.

Our Regiment has been very small since have been recruiting some by new returns from different places, we number now 325 men, and as good a set of men to carry them as ever fought for Uncle Sam. We have been making some effort to get to this our some duty their and at the same time get rest, and recruit our decimated ranks which I think could be done without much difficult. I will send you duplicate account of clothing soon and write a little later by the do not fail to write about your command.

Friend Lyme,

I am happy to say your long looked for letter came to hand a few days ago. you forget when you was in the service of U. Sam how eagerly and anxiously yourself as well as the rest of us would seek the mail no matter how often it came and with what pleasure and joy peruse the contents of the letters & papers from the friends at home: the news contained therein, whether old or fresh, sad or gay, or of whatever nature always relieved to a great degree a certain monotonous, and dull state of mind.

Since the 18th or 19th of March the 13th and 59th Regts. O.V.I. have been 6 miles from Murfreesboro and a pleasant and most agreeable spring we have had of it. So far, fishing and visiting our neighbors (of the latter we have many) are the principle amusements, while for the inner man we get Eggs, Butter, Milk and many other little rarities in which Soldiers do not often indulge. Lt. Col. Mast and I live and mess together and our "Chebang" is always considered by the "gay and festive" of this Army, to be the "Hd.Qs." for all games of amusement, deviltry, and good living "drinks" not excepted.

I enclose you ~~an~~ advertisement in the Commercial which is one of our latest. The result you may feel assured was "decidedly rich."

Our loss at the Battle of Stones River was 178 killed, wounded, and missing. Col. Hawkins, Lieuts. Murphy, Whitacre, and Fox were killed. Capt. Mast, Lieuts. Ray, Gold and Stone were wounded. 33 men were killed, and over one hundred wounded, and several taken prisoners. We were in two general engagements. The first and most disastrous on Wednesday, 31st of Dec. and the 2nd on Friday 2nd of January. Our Regiment has been very small since, have been recruiting by men returning from different places. We number now 325 Guns, and as good a set of men to carry them as ever fought for Uncle Sam. We have been making some effort to get to Ohio on some duty their and at the same time get rest and recruit our decimated ranks which I think could be done without much difficulty. I will send you duplicate account of clothing soon and write you at greater length, do not fail to write at your convenience. Give my regards to your Father and if you visit Brownsville again do not fail to call and see my Aunt and Cousins. If not improper what did you leave A. for? "Dixie" is behind on the "Band Fund" between two & three hundred, only!
