WILLIAM GRAHAM SIRWELL

The copies, herein, are from the original company order book of Company I 78th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry.

The regiment was under the command of my great grandfather, Col. William G. Sirwell.

His picture on the cover is reproduced from an old newspaper cut.

The order book, which has a brown suede like cover, was the possession of Lt. G. W. Black of Apollo, Pa. His granddaughter, Ms. Elizabeth Buzzard, gave the book to Ronald Gancas of Plum, Pa. who permitted me to make copies of it.

Genl Orders
No 6

II Hereafter no passes will be approved at these Head Quarters unless the business and destination be clearly stated and time specified in the body of the pass. Provost Marshals are directed to examine each pass and see that it conforms to the above before forwarding to these Head Quarters for approval. Each Provost Marshal will forward to these Head Quarters with each day's his Autograph and official pass approving Signature to enable the Division Provost Marshal to guard against fraudulent approvals the authority to approve passes in the absence of the Provost Marshal must not be delegated to Clerks but if not to the a Genl to an Asst de Camp or other Staff officer who will sign it as acting Provost Marshal the interests of the service require a proper discrimination in granting passes. To this end slight pretexts and trivial causes must not be entertained. The interests of public service dictates of humanity and surrounding circumstances should control the Officer granting or refusing the approval

III The Constant attention of Brigade Provost Marshalls is called to Paragraph III Genl order No 88 and to Genl Orders Nos 38 and 40 from Department Head Quarters and a strict observance enjoined as they will be held as a part of the duty of their General to observe closely and report promptly all irregularities either of Officers enlisted men following of the strong prohibitions and the orders above mentioned as tending to the demoralization and inefficiency of our soldiers In cases of minor offences the Provost Marshal will cause summary punishment to be inflicted when well satisfied of the offenders guilt In other cases they will post the proper entries arrest in charges and within eight days file charges with the proper authorities and if possible cause speedy trial to be had submitting the proceedings in all cases to the Brigade Commanders for approval

II When deserters or camp followers from the enemy present themselves or persons supposed to be spies are apprehended the Provost Marshal of the Brigade or Officer having them in custody will immediately cause them to be brought to these Head Quarters with a written statement of the circumstances and fact attending the arrest and a list of all parties witnesses thereto In all cases where parties are sent to the Provost Marshal for confinement they will accept the prisoners and be responsible for their custody until the eight days have expired when if charges are not filed and proper cause shown they will be released

IV The alarming list of absentees from this Command leads to the belief that due attention is not given to the proper method of apprehending deserters and the proper vigilance imperative upon all Officers to prevent straggling Hereafter the Officers Commanding a squad Company or detachment will be held strictly responsible for all straggling from his command and in cases of neglect he may expect the most speedy and severe punishment that the General Commanding can cause to be inflicted The attention of Provost Marshalls and other Officers and enlisted men is hereby directed to Articles of War Nos 28 29 31 32, 36, 37, 38, 39, 41, 42, 45, 48, 51, 54, 58, 60 78, 80, 81, 82, and Section 2nd act of Congress approved April 10th 1806

V Many persons in citizens dress are in the habit of strolling through our Camps with no other purpose than to make themselves familiar with our strength and position and at the earliest practicable moment communicate the facts to the enemy All such parties must be expelled from the Camps of this Command None are in citizens dress will be permitted in the Camps unless with the consent of the proper authority It is well ascertained that the secret agents & spies of the enemy being supplied with an outfit of federal Uniforms are in the habit of wandering through our lines & Camps ostensibly in quest of some Command to which they belong but ready to perform the treacherous work of Rebel Spies The people of our troops demands that all wanderers and Loafers be regarded with suspicion and it is hereby made the duty of Provost Marshals Provost and Camp Guards and Patrols to arrest all such parties and keep them in custody until they are identified by their immediate Commanding Officer

VII A Provost Marshal is a Military Justice of the Peace and as much it is his duty to familiarize himself with the Regulations Articles of War and General Orders and do all in his power to correct abuses and irregularities and promote the morals dignity and efficiency of the troops It is also an important duty to make himself acquainted with Political and Military Statutes of the inhabitants of the country through which the Army moves Using every precaution to prevent them doing any thing prejudicial to its operation He will keep a neatly ruled Docket in which he will record the important points in each case embracing the name of the parties the nature of the case in action the testimony thereto with all necessary dates therein Which Docket he will present upon the close of each month to the Division Provost Marshal for inspection

VIII Regimental Commanders will see that each Company is furnished with a copy of this order with out delay and within the first seven days after its reception it shall be read at their different Roll Calls and there after once in every (20) twenty days Officers will be held strictly responsible for a faithful observance of the forgoing And hereafter a plea of ignorance will only add to the offence and will be no excuse for Officer or Enlisted man to keep Slave murderers

The 37th & 88th Ind'a furnished the most cases.

The General Commanding deeply regrets the necessity of so frequently calling attention to a practice unmilitary demoralizing and disgraceful

The reputation and success of our army demand that the habit of straggling shall be stopped at once.

Brigade & Regimental & company commanders will take all necessary precautions to prevent it.

Brigade Inspectors are peremptorily ordered to report without delay in writing to these Head Quarters every Regimental or company commander who permits a single Soldier to leave the company ranks when marching or the camp when at a halt without a written pass approved by his Regimental and Brigade commanders when both or either of them are present.

It is intended hereafter to report through corps and Department Head Quarters to the Governors of their States the name of Every Officer who fails to restrain his men in this particular. with the view of preventing Officers who afford such strong evidence of inefficiency from further promotion
