Miss R. D. Westfall

In compliance with a promise I made to your brother Ebenezer, I write this letter to inform you of his death. He died at 7 1/2 P.M. of the 26th this month. I was with your brother from the time he was taken prisoner until his death, being wounded & taken myself. Our beds were side by side most of the time. His wound was not thought to be fatal, but the chills and fever set in on him and that with the wounds terminated his life. His comrades in Co. A came in and buried him next day. They procured a coffin which a great many do not get. I have no doubt but some of his friends have written to you before this time informing you of his death, but I felt as if I must write because I had promised him I would do so. In the forenoon of the day he died he called me to his bed side and told me if he should die here I must write to you and let you know it. I told him I would. He was delerious most of the day and would often mention his mother and sister. He was a good soldier on the Battle field and bore his suffering well.

I am very faithfully
your Obedient Serv't

Miss R.D. Westfall,

In compliance with a promise I made to your brother I hasten to write you and inform you of his death. He died at 7½ P.M. of the 26th this month. I was with your brother from the time he was taken prisoner until his death, being wounded & taken myself. Our beds were side by side & most of the time. His wound was not thought to be fatal but the chills & fever set in on him and that with the wounds terminated his life. His comrades Co. A. came in and buried him next day. They procured a coffin, which a great many do not get. I have no doubt but some of his friends have written to you before this time informing you of his death but I felt as if I must write because I had promised him I would do so. In the forenoon of the day he died he called me to his bedside and told me he thought he could not live. I told him I would. He was delirious most of the day, and would often mention his Mother and Sister. He was a good soldier on the Battle field and bore his sufferings well.

I am yours obedient Servt

Re: Ebenezer Westfall

Dear Mr. Magee:

Thank you very much for your letter of April 6, 1988 and the materials sent with it. The family appreciates your attention to the responsibility of maintaining the Battlefield, its Cemetery and Records pertaining thereto.

We are sorry to hear that no marked grave exists for our relative. For your records, we would like to place a copy of his death notice in your files. The notice received by Ebenezer's sister, Rachel D. Westfall reads as follows:

COPY FOR YOUR INFORMATION

November 1, 1990

Dear Friends:

On Sunday, October 28, 1990 a long awaited visit was paid to the Stones River Battlefield. Well kept, good displays, etc.

My grandfather's uncle (my great-grandfather's brother), Ebenezer Westfall of the 35th Illinois was wounded in the battle. He died a few days later per death notice letter copy enclosed.

Have often wondered where he may have been cared for and buried. Best guess is that his wounding occured 7-8 AM on 31st, possibly by a Texas 9th soldier.

Any records or evidences of where hospitals were set up and burial sites?

Dear Mr. Westfall:

I have received your letter of November 1 addressed to the Rutherford County Historical Society, regarding your great-grandfather's brother, Ebenezer Westfall. I found the enclosed correspondence from Samuel W. Bird fascinating! Civil War history is my specialty, although I'm afraid we were on opposing sides. My great-grandfather was a doctor in Company I of the 41st Tennessee Infantry.

I can certainly appreciate and share in your curiosity as to where your ancestor was cared for, died, and was buried. Having re-traced several of the paths of victory and defeat experienced by my great-grandfather, Dr. John Kennerly Farris, Sr., it is hard not to get caught up in the nostalgia. For this reason, I wish that I could provide you with more information than what is noted. All that I can tell you is that area homes were transformed into battlefield hospitals, as well as tents, and any other type of available shelters. The Battle of Stones River was such a bloody and awful experience. It is said the river ran red with blood. And more than 25,000 lives were lost in such a short time. Unfortunately, for soldiers not from around the immediate area, burial was almost immediate. Our boys were either taken home to family cemetaries or buried in Evergreen Cemetary in Confederate Circle. There are no Confederate soldiers buried in the Stones River Military National Park as it is a U.S. Military Park and therefore dedicated only to those who fought for the United States. I feel confident in saying that your ancestor is buried there. Perhaps officials at the park can help you locate his exact burial plot. Extensive work has just been completed and many graves have been newly identified. I am forwarding your correspondence on to the Park Superintendent in the hope that she can be of assistance.

I wish you much luck in obtaining the information you seek. If I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitiate to write.

Sincerely,

Shirley F. Jones
