Your favor of the 26th ultimo by J. Allen Porter (U.S.) is at hand and I am truly gratified to learn that there is a probability that I can yet get matters properly settled.

Enclosed please find the affidavits – (3) that were sent to me for signature executed and signed.

In regard to the Ordnance dropped from my last return, I will say that I do not intend to attempt to account for it but simply to pay for it. There was never a single article charged against the men on my [crossed out] the muster rolls of the Company. I will also fall short in Quartermaster's Stores and Camp and Garrison Equippage [sic] [illegible] but it is all to be deducted from my pay

I have made satisfactory settlements with the men I am Gentlemen very respectfully
