

Stones River

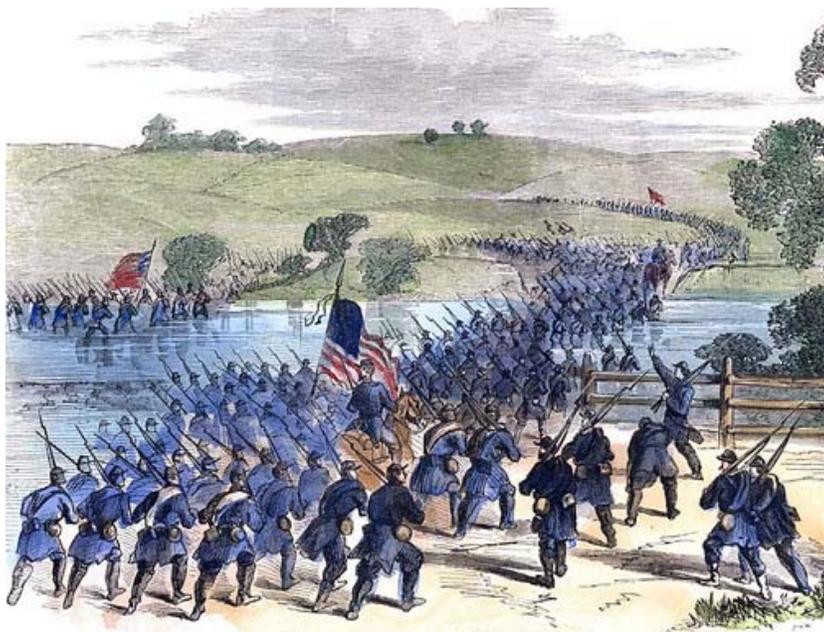

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Stones River National Battlefield

On To Murfreesboro: A Stones River Campaign Bus Tour

Saturday December 22, 2012

Join a park ranger and explore the struggle between the Union and Confederate armies in the days leading up to the Battle of Stones River. Follow the path of the Union troops through Nolensville, Triune, Lavergne, and Smyrna, as they trudged toward Murfreesboro December 26-28, 1862 using first-person accounts from soldiers and civilians.

When: Saturday December 22, 2012, 9 AM – 3 PM

Where: Tour begins and ends at the Stones River National Battlefield Visitor Center.

Reservations: Reservations are required and can be made by contacting us at 615-893-9501 or stri_information@nps.gov.

Cost: $25 per person (includes box lunch)

Make checks payable to Eastern National and mail to:

Stones River National Battlefield
3501 Old Nashville Highway
Murfreesboro, TN 37129