Photograph 22. View of Main Street, showing a portion of “Arch House Row,” facing southeast.

Photograph 23. View of Main Street, showing a portion of “Arch House Row,” facing northwest.
Photograph 24. View of Main Street, showing a portion of “Arch House Row,” facing northwest.

Photograph 25. View of Main Street, showing embanked houses on south side, facing southeast.
Photograph 26. View of Main Street, showing the intersection with Second and Water Streets, facing southeast.

Photograph 27. View of Main Street, showing the intersection with Second and Water Streets, facing southeast.
Photograph 28. View of Main Street, showing the Pink House, facing northwest.

Photograph 29. View of the c. 1801 Mahlon Janney subdivision of Main Street, showing the James Moore House, facing northwest.
Photograph 30. View of the c. 1801 Mahlon Janney subdivision of Main Street, showing the John McGeath House, facing northwest.

Photograph 31. View of Water Street, from Main Street, showing the jail and the Weaver’s Cottage, facing north.
Photograph 32. View of Main Street, showing the Asa Moore and Abner Moore houses, facing northwest.

Photograph 33. View of Main Street from atop the “Big Hill,” showing the Edward Dorsey House and the America Hough House, facing northwest.
Photograph 34. View of the Lloyd Curtis House, a Federal style cottage, facing northwest.

Photograph 35. View of the intersection at Main and High Streets, showing the Waterford Baptist Church, facing northwest.
Photograph 36. View of the intersection at Main and High Streets, showing the second Mahlon Janney house, facing north.

Photograph 37. View of the intersection at Main, Second, and Water Streets, showing the first Loudoun Mutual Building, the Post Office and the Corner Store, facing north.
Photograph 38. View of east side of Second Street, facing southwest.

Photograph 39. View of open space behind the east side of Second Street, facing west.
Photograph 40. View of the Waterford Market, showing open space behind Second Street, facing north.

Photograph 41. View of the west side of Second Street, facing south.
Photograph 42. View of Church Street, facing east.

Photograph 43. View of the Federal dwellings on the west side of Second Street at the intersection of Patrick Street, facing north.
Photograph 44. View of the Federal dwellings on the west side of Second Street, facing south.

Photograph 45. Environmental view of Second Street, facing south.
Photograph 46. View of the east side of Second Street, showing late nineteenth century dwellings, facing south.

Photograph 47. View of Trouble Enough Indeed on the east side of Second Street, facing east.
Photograph 48. View of the Flavius Beans House and the Asbury Johnson House, located on the west side of Second Street, facing northwest.

Photograph 49. View of the Odd Fellows Hall and the Second Street School, located on the west side of Second Street, facing northwest.
Photograph 50. View of William Williams House and the Williams Storehouse located on the east side of Second Street, facing east.

Photograph 51. Environmental view of Janney Street, facing southeast.
Photograph 52. View of the Michael House, Magnolia House, and the Jacob Mendenhall House located on the east side of Second Street, facing north.

Photograph 53. View of open space beyond the intersection of Second and Factory Streets, facing south.
Photograph 54. View of the Leslie Myers House, located on the north side of Factory Street, facing east.

Photograph 55. View of the open space along Clarkes Gap Road, facing southwest.
Photograph 56. View of Janney Street from High Street, facing west.

Photograph 57. View of the Catoctin Presbyterian Church, located at the intersection of High and Patrick Streets, facing north.
Photograph 58. View of the south side of Patrick Street, facing southwest.

Photograph 59. View of the north side of Patrick Street, facing northwest.
Photograph 60. View of the Waterford Baptist Church from High Street, facing north.

Photograph 61. View of the Waterford Baptist Church and the Catoctin Presbyterian Church, facing south.
Photograph 62. View of the Old School, now the home to the Waterford Foundation, facing east.

Photograph 63. View of the William Russell House, showing agricultural lands in the foreground and background, facing southeast.