

National Capital Region
1100 Ohio Drive, SW
Washington, DC 20242

Phone: 202-619-7500
www.nps.gov/uspp

United States Park Police News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 10/24/2018
Contact: Sergeant Eduardo Delgado, uspp_pio@nps.gov

Police Seek Information Regarding Sexual Assault

WASHINGTON DC – The U.S. Park Police is investigating a sexual assault that occurred on September 30, 2018 at approximately 0145 hours in the 2700 block of Naylor Road, Southeast, Washington, DC.

The suspect was, described as a black male, 6'1"- 6'2", medium build, medium brown skin tone, short hair and a light beard, was seen prior to the incident on Minnesota Avenue between Pennsylvania Avenue and Naylor Road, Southeast, Washington, DC. He was wearing a red sweatshirt with an unknown graphic on the back and left front, tan cargo pants, and white/purple/black shoes. The U.S. Park Police is seeking the public's assistance in identifying the depicted suspect and/or the company/logo depicted on the sweatshirt.

Anyone with any information regarding this investigation is urged to contact the U.S. Park Police Criminal Investigations at 202-610-8730 or the U.S. Park Police tip line at 202-610-8737.

###

www.nps.gov/uspp

About the United States Park Police: USPP supports the mission of the National Park Service by providing law enforcement to safeguard lives, protect national treasures and symbols of democracy, and preserve the natural and cultural resources entrusted to the care of the National Park Service. USPP officers are located in the Washington, New York, and San Francisco metropolitan areas. The force was created by President George Washington in 1791.

EXPERIENCE YOUR AMERICA™

The National Park Service cares for special places saved by the American people so that all may experience our heritage.