

19th Amendment Girl Scout Ranger

The Girl Scout Ranger program invites Girl Scouts to participate in a special commemoration of the centennial of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution. Centennial activities at national park and partner sites offer an unparalleled opportunity to commemorate a milestone of democracy and to explore its relevance to the issues of civic engagement and equal rights today.

Girl Scouts can earn a limited edition 19th Amendment Centennial commemorative patch by participating in:

- Centennial-related organized educational programs

OR

- By completing one or more activities at one or more national park or partner sites.

Qualifying organized educational programs:

- Park ranger guided interpretive tours
- Junior Ranger programs
- Girl Scout Journey program at a national park

Qualifying volunteer service/action projects:

Any sustainable organized project identified by the National Park Service and the Girl Scouts of the United States of America in the 19th Amendment Centennial Activity booklet.
