Special Horse- Drawn Haying Demonstration at the Preserve

Living history interpreters at Tallgrass Prairie National Preserve will demonstrate historic haying and raking methods using draft horses and 19th century machinery throughout the day on Saturday, June 6th from 10 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Visitors will have the opportunity to help “pitch hay” into the hay wagon with the assistance of ranch characters. Living history interpreters will also demonstrate 19th century techniques of Dutch oven and ranch stove cooking while preparing a meal for the ranch hands. Special interpretive programs will be given at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. From noon until 1 p.m., ranch workers will stop for a mid- day meal under the cottonwood tree by the ranch house. Throughout the day listen to live historic music and watch wool spinning demonstrations in the historic barn.

On Sunday, June 7th learn about life on the ranch as living history characters go about their daily activities. Special interpretive programs will be given at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

On weekends in June visit the one- room Lower Fox Creek Schoolhouse from 12 noon to 4:00 p.m. and learn about a prairie education. The school is furnished with historic desks, McGuffey Readers, a recitation bench, and other classroom items. National Park Service volunteers will be available to answer questions and provide information about the school’s rich history.

A 6.4- mile bus tour of the preserve’s backcountry is available at 11 a.m., 1 p.m., and 3 p.m. daily from April 25 through October 25, 2009. There is no charge for the tours. Advance reservations for the bus tours are recommended, but arrangements can be made on the day of the visit if space is available. For more information, please call the park rangers’ offices at (620) 273- 8494.
