Federal Job Application Workshops to be Held in Cottonwood Falls

Tallgrass Prairie National Preserve announced today that the National Park Service will present two workshops on the application process for federal jobs on Monday, July 20th, 2009.

Alvis Mar, Midwest Regional Recruitment Program Manager for the National Park Service will conduct two sessions, the first at 6 p.m. and the second covering the same topics at 8 p.m. on July 20th at the Community Center Building in Cottonwood Falls, Kansas. The two- hour workshops will focus on the current federal job application process; each session will entail a one- hour presentation, with the remaining hour allowing individuals the opportunity to ask questions or have their own applications or resumes reviewed. Handouts and materials will be available to participants at each session. No reservation is required and everyone is welcome.

Tallgrass Prairie National Preserve is located two miles north of Strong City on Kansas State Highway 177 (the Flint Hills National Scenic Byway). For more information or to make group reservations, visit the preserve's website at www.nps.gov/tapr, e- mail tapr\_interpretation@nps.gov, or call the preserve at (620) 273- 8494. Superintendent Wendy Lauritzen can be reached at the Cottonwood Falls office at 620- 273- 6034.
