“ I believe in woman’s rights. I believe even more earnestly in the performance of duty by both men and women; for unless the average man and the average woman live lives of duty, not only our democracy but civilization itself will perish. I heartily believe in equality of rights as between man and woman... ”

Experience Your America...

The National Park Service began to care for the reconstruction of Theodore Roosevelt's boyhood home, Theodore Roosevelt Birthplace National Historic Site, in 1962. This site is now a place to remember his legacy and how it impacts our lives today.

National Park Rangers care for all National Parks, but it is a job we cannot do alone. The stewardship of the American people is vital to the well-being of our national treasures.

What are some things YOU can do to help care for our National Parks?

Stewardship is the careful and responsible management of something entrusted to a person or community's care.

Color in the arrowhead when you get home!

The arrowhead is the symbol of the National Park Service.

The sequoia tree and the bison represent nature, the mountains and water represent recreation, and the arrowhead represents history and archeology.

The emblem symbolizes the values of National Park Rangers.
