Teddy Bear Picnic To Be Held at Theodore Roosevelt National Park

Have you ever wondered how the “Teddy Bear” got its name? Do you have a special fuzzy companion? The Theodore Roosevelt Nature and History Association will host a Teddy Bear Picnic on Friday, July 10 at 1:00 pm to celebrate Teddy Bears and their owners.

Kids of all ages are invited to bring their Teddy Bears and to share their names and stories. Each child attending the picnic will receive a goodie bag and will have an opportunity play games and win prizes. Story time will include the story of how the Teddy Bear was named and the history of Teddy Bear picnics. There will also be a visit by a very special surprise guest.

“This is a wonderful opportunity for Teddy Bear fans to celebrate and honor the namesake of Teddy Bears, Theodore Roosevelt,” said Jane Muggli, TRNHA executive Director. “It will be a lot of fun for everyone.”

The picnic will be held on the lawn of the South Unit Visitor Center by the Maltese Cross Cabin in Theodore Roosevelt National Park.
