

Fort Caroline National Memorial
Worksheet for Scavenger Hunt

Names _____

1. What is Fort Caroline National Memorial? _____

2. Who were the first native people in Florida? _____

a. Why is it important to understand who the first native people were in Florida? _____

b. It is estimated that the culture of the first native people remained unchanged for many years. How long was this culture unchanged? _____

c. What were the prehistoric ancestors of the native people called? _____

Fort Caroline National Memorial
Worksheet for Scavenger Hunt

Names _____

d. What is a midden? _____

e. What is a burial mound? _____

f. What happened to the native people? _____

3. Who was Jean Ribault? _____

a. Jean Ribault was impressed with the native peoples' Chief _____ and these French people called the St.
Johns River, The _____.

b. List the other native people's chiefs and describe where the villages were for each of the chiefs

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. Explain the form of government the native people practice. _____

Fort Caroline National Memorial
Worksheet for Scavenger Hunt

Names _____

5. A part of the Timucuan Ecological and Historic Preserve is the Theodore Roosevelt Area. Why is this area named after Theodore Roosevelt? _____

6. Find out why the original site of "La Caroline" no longer exists.

7. Briefly describe the following people:

a. Charles IX _____

b. Gaspard de Coligny _____

c. René de Laudonnière _____

d. Pedro Menendez de Aviles _____

8. Now for the trip to Fort Caroline...make sure your group takes good notes for the post-trip written assignment: Students will write an essay describing the facts, data, and people they discovered during their trip.