

NPS Fundamentals Voluntary Self-Identification of Need for Reasonable Accommodation

Welcome to NPS Fundamentals V! This form provides you an opportunity to request a reasonable accommodation for a special need. It is our intention to help ensure that all course participants have a successful experience while attending the class. Please complete and return this form to NPS Fundamentals V staff member Samantha Paige by at least one month prior to class. Fax: (202) 371-6747 or email: samantha\_paige@nps.gov.

Conditions you will likely encounter include, but are not limited to:

Temperature extremes

Classroom setting which includes:

- Lecture-type presentations
- Presentations using PowerPoint and videos
- Flip charts used by instructors and class participants
- Class participant presentations
- Small and large group discussions and activities

Activities outside the classroom:

- Tour of the Eye Street and Main Interior office buildings in Washington, D.C. (this will require riding in a commercial bus and walking)
- A field exercise on the Washington Mall, requiring:
  - travel in a large commercial bus
  - getting on and off the bus multiple times
  - possibly walking over uneven terrain
  - extended periods of walking and standing

Class work

- Written work assignments in class
- Written evaluations of each session and the overall course

Based on this information described above, I request a reasonable accommodation: _____ Yes

Participant Name: _____

The type(s) of reasonable accommodation(s) I request include (use additional sheets as needed):

---

---

---

---

Please note that the NPS may recommend an alternative accommodation.