

Strategies and Tactics for the Experienced Natural Resource Professional

Fort Collins Science Center, Fort Collins, CO
November 17-19, 2015

The (USGS) Fort Collins Science Center will offer an advanced negotiation training course for natural resource professionals. It is being offered by USGS social science researcher Nina Burkardt, along with guest instructors. The course design is a mix of lecture, hands-on training, and discussion, with an emphasis on practical activities and discussion.

After the workshop, participants will be better prepared to:

- Successfully lead a negotiating team.
- Apply negotiation strategies to a variety of management situations.
- Coach others in the negotiation process.

For more information on negotiation training, visit <https://www.fort.usgs.gov/products/negotiation-training>

Participants: This course is recommended for Field Office Supervisors; Project Managers; Area Office Directors; Project Coordinators; Team Leaders; Resource Managers; Park, Monument, and Refuge Managers; Lead Negotiators; District Rangers; and Planning Supervisors.

Dates: November 17-19, 2015
Tuesday 8:30-5:00
Wednesday 8:30-5:00
Thursday 8:30-3:00 (doors open at 7:45)

Location: U.S. Geological Survey, Fort Collins Science Center, 2150 Centre Ave, Bldg. C., Fort Collins, CO 80526

Tuition: $950

Application: By completing the following information you are reserving a seat in the course (a minimum of 12 students is required, the course is capped at 24 students)

Course Earlene Swann, Training Information, swanne@usgs.gov, 970-226-9346

Coordinators: Katie Walters, Registration Information, waltersk@usgs.gov, 970-226-9334