

Pawling Farm was one of the Continental Army commissaries and the major campsite of the army after the troops shifted to outlying locations on June 9, 1778.

Sullivan's Bridge
Open to pedestrians and bicycles only.

Washington's troops arrived December 19, 1777, over Gulph Road from Gulph Mills, southeast of Valley Forge.

VALLEY FORGE NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

Encampment Tour Stop Follow these signs for the self-guiding Encampment Tour.

- Encampment Tour stop
- Picnic area
- Restrooms (wheelchair-accessible)
- Wheelchair-accessible
- Food service
- Reconstructed hut
- Visitor parking
- Encampment Tour
- Trail
- Historic trace (road)
- Railroad

Valley Forge Station
Begin visit to Washington's Headquarters here.

Washington's Headquarters

Varnum's Picnic Area
open seasonally

Washington Memorial Chapel

Visitor Center

Maurice Stephens House
(not open to public)

Varnum's Quarters
open seasonally

Patriots of African Descent Monument

David Potts House

Soldiers of New Jersey Monument

Artillery Park

National Memorial Arch
Begin one-way

Wayne's Woods

Lord Stirling's Quarters
(not open to public)

Knox's Quarters
(not open to public)

P. C. Knox Estate (Library)

Lafayette's Quarters
(not open to public)