

Lessons Learned and Lessons to Learn

*Friday, November 11th
Schedule of Events*

Veterans Day Opening Ceremony
Washita Battlefield NHS Overlook
2:00pm - 5:00pm

Presentation of Colors
Junior ROTC Color Guard
Clinton High School

Welcome
Lisa Conard Frost
Superintendent, Washita Battlefield NHS

Traditional Blessing
Gordon Yellowman, Sr.
Cheyenne Chief

Remarks
Hon. Frank D. Lucas - U.S. Congressman

Traditional Music
Red Moon Singers & Drum Group

Presentation
Harvey Pratt
Cheyenne Chief, U.S. Marine Corps Veteran and Artist

Visitor Center Open House
Refreshments
Film viewing: Braided Paths

Saturday, November 12th

Schedule of Events

Washita Anniversary Symposium
Cheyenne High School Auditorium

8:30am – Opening Remarks

Frank Torres - MC, Chief of Interpretation, Washita Battlefield NHS

Remarks from U. S. Congressman Frank D. Lucas' Office

Bruce Noble - Oklahoma State Coordinator & Superintendent, Chickasaw NRA

Lisa Conard Frost - Superintendent, Washita Battlefield NHS

9:00am - HAMMON, 4,000 Miles To Go

Craig Moore - Park Ranger and Historian

Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site

10:00am - *From Sand Creek to Washita:
A Consequential Linkage*

Jerome Greene - Author and Historian

National Park Service, retired

11:00am - *Ned Wynkoop Lashes Out Against the U.S.
Government's Wrong & Disgraceful Actions*

Louis Kraft - Historian and Author

Noon -Lunch - (available for purchase)

1:00pm - *Native America in the 21st Century:
Out of the Mists of History and Beyond Myth*

W. Richard West, Jr. - Southern Cheyenne Peace Chief

Founding Director and Director Emeritus of

Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian

2:00pm - “*I'm Goin' To Tell You Something':
Collecting Washita Oral History, 1998-2003*”

Dr. Mary Jane Warde - Historian and Historic Preservationist

Former Indian Archivist/Historian, Oklahoma Historical Society

3:00pm - -(mâhtohto) hóhtâhnóhona aenôtse; at Washita

Gordon Yellowman, Sr. - Cheyenne Chief and Director,

Department of Education Cheyenne & Arapaho Language Program

4:00pm -Final Remarks

