

APPENDIX I

INDEX OF THE LETTERS OF MARCUS AND NARCISSA WHITMAN

Three hundred and two Whitman letters, written during the years 1827–47 inclusive, have been consulted in the writing of this work. This is an amazing number to survive the vicissitudes of 125 or more years, especially when the majority of the extant letters were kept for decades by individuals rather than by some organization, such as the American Board. Of the total, 176 were written by Marcus and 126 by Narcissa.

The following index of the Whitman letters, first used in my Marcus Whitman, M.D., has been compiled in order to give something of the history of each letter and to provide a quick reference in the text to any letter quoted or consulted. When such a reference is made, the number of the letter will be given in brackets. By checking the number in the following index, one can learn the place where the letter was written; the person or persons to whom it was addressed; the date of writing; the present location of the original if known; and the name of at least one publication in which it appeared if published. The letters of Mrs. Whitman are indicated by underlining the dates of writing.

I had access to 222 Whitman letters when writing my Marcus Whitman, M.D., which appeared in 1937. Since that time, eighty more Whitman letters have been located or made available to me. Sixteen of this number were located in libraries, in private hands, or reprinted in publications. The other sixty-four were held by a dealer in Western Americana in 1935 who was unwilling to let me examine them. He said: "If you use them, the bloom is off the peach." Later these letters became part of the Coe Collection, now in the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library of Yale University, where I have had the privilege of examining them. Most of the letters in this collection were written by Dr. Whitman to Elkanah Walker, and dealt largely with mission business. In addition to the Whitman letters in the Coe Collection, Yale University library previously had ten Whitman letters which were once in the Oregon Historical Society. These had been published in the 1891 and 1893 issues of the Transactions of the Oregon Pioneer Association.

The 302 letters here listed do not include twelve letters which Dr. Whitman sent to Henry Hill, Treasurer of the American Board or one which Mrs. Whitman sent to Hill. These dealt with financial matters.

Eight libraries hold 245 Whitman letters of the 302 here catalogued. The following abbreviations will be used to indicate the collections of the different libraries which own three or more of these letters. The figures in parenthesis indicate the extent of their holdings. Each of the libraries here listed have kindly granted me permission to use these letters.

Coll. A (65)—A.B.C.F.M., on file in Houghton Library, Harvard University

Coll. B (9)—Bancroft Library, University of California, Berkeley

Coll. H (6)—Hawaiian Mission Children's Society, Honolulu, Hawaii

Coll. O (56)—Oregon Historical Society, Portland, Oregon

Coll. W (14)—Whitman College, Walla Walla, Washington

Coll. Wn (3)—Washington State University, Pullman

Coll. WSHS (17)—Washington State Historical Society, Tacoma

Coll. Y (75)—Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut

Nineteen original letters are held by other libraries or are privately owned. Thirty-seven letters are known only in copies or in some published form. The following is the key used to designate the person or persons to whom the letters were addressed:

1—Secretaries of the A.B.C.F.M., usually the Rev. David Greene

2—Members of Dr. Whitman's family

3—Members of Mrs. Whitman's family

4—Rev. or Mrs. Samuel Parker

5—Rev. or Mrs. Elkanah Walker

5a—"Walker & Eells," or "Dear Brethren"

6—Rev. or Mrs. H. K. W. Perkins, Methodist missionaries at The Dalles

7—Mr. or Mrs. H. B. Brewer, Methodist missionaries

Names in parenthesis before the numbers "2" or "3" refer to individual members of the families of Dr. or Mrs. Whitman. Example—"Jane," mentioned in listing of letter No. 21, was a sister of Narcissa's. Other names mentioned can be identified by checking the index. The numbering of the 222 letters, listed in Appendix I of my Marcus Whitman, M.D., has been retained; the additional eighty letters have been inserted in their proper chronological sequence with letters from the alphabet added to the number immediately preceding. The retention of the old numbering is intended to accommodate those who, in their writings, have referred to a Whitman letter by the number used in my earlier work. All letters not previously listed are easily identified by noticing the numbers which are followed by a letter from the alphabet.

Other abbreviations used in this index include the following: Ft. Van.—Fort Vancouver; Ft. W.W.—Fort Walla Walla; and Waii.—Wailatpu. See "Acknowledgments, Sources, and Abbreviations" for other abbreviations used.
