Full Moon Night Indiana Bones

Mike McCartney, aka Indiana Bones, combines archaeology, action, adventure, legends, and folklore that will educate and thrill all ages. With the use of artifacts, fossils, lively puppets and a crack of his bull whip, Indy will lead you on a journey of legends and stories of the Southwest. Join him for a family-friendly evening beneath the silvery moon.

*8:00 pm Thursday, August 2

Lake Lucero Tour

Have you ever wondered how the white sands formed? Take a tour to Lake Lucero with a ranger and learn how the dunes are formed from gypsum-laden water and selenite crystals. Tour fee: $3.00 per adult (16 years and older), $1.50 for children and America the Beautiful Senior and Access pass holders. Reservations can be made one month in advance at www.nps.gov/whsa. All tour reservations must be made through the website.

*5 pm Saturday, August 25

Crafty Kids

Kids get your hands involved in learning! Join rangers in the visitor center courtyard for a one-hour craft and interpretive program. Rangers will share surprising facts about the creepy crawlers, amazing adapters, and out-of-this-world geology of White Sands while guiding you through a take-home craft project. Targeted age range is 6–10 years old. Parents are welcome to stay and participate in the program. Program is free.

*10:00 am every Sunday

White Sands Institute

White Sands National Monument and New Mexico State University—Alamogordo are teaming up to offer a series of field seminars focused on the extraordinary White Sands. To register for any White Sands Institute seminar for adults or class for kids, call NMSU Alamogordo Community Education at 575-439-3842. For more information including a complete schedule for each seminar, visit www.nmsua.edu and go to Community Education, then to White Sands Institute.

Skins and Skulls

Join a ranger in the visitor center courtyard for a 20-minute talk about the amazing animals of White Sands. Rangers will have pelts, skulls, and other props to provide you an up-close look and feel of the elusive wildlife of White Sands. Program is free.

*3:00 pm daily May 26—September 2
