

Civil War Medical Tools

Surgical Scalpel

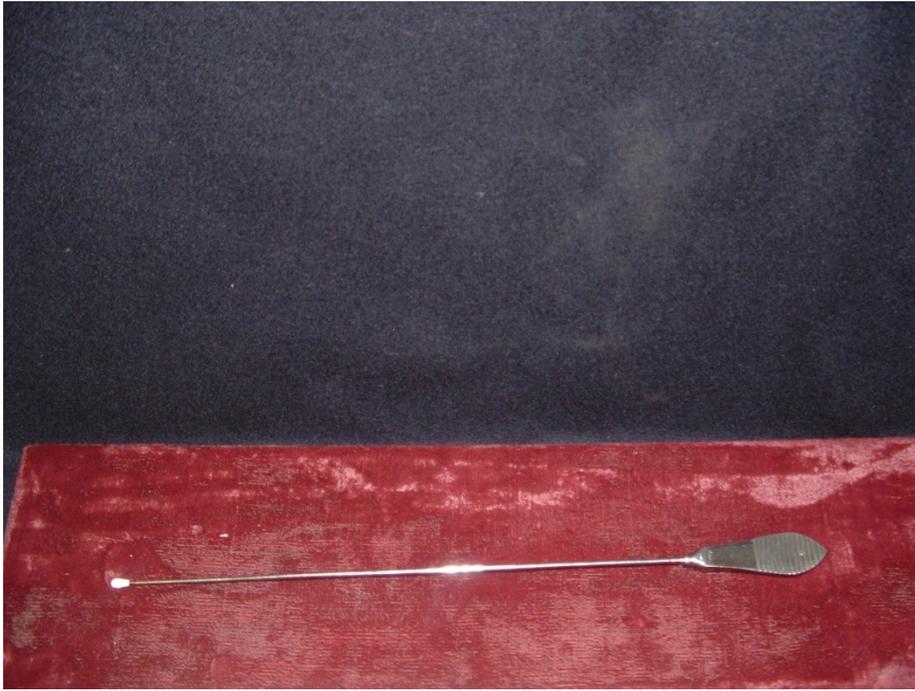

Straight Forceps - Bullet extractors- For removing lead projectiles.

Large Amputation Saw

Scissors - Curved: For cutting tissue; also for cutting bandage materials.

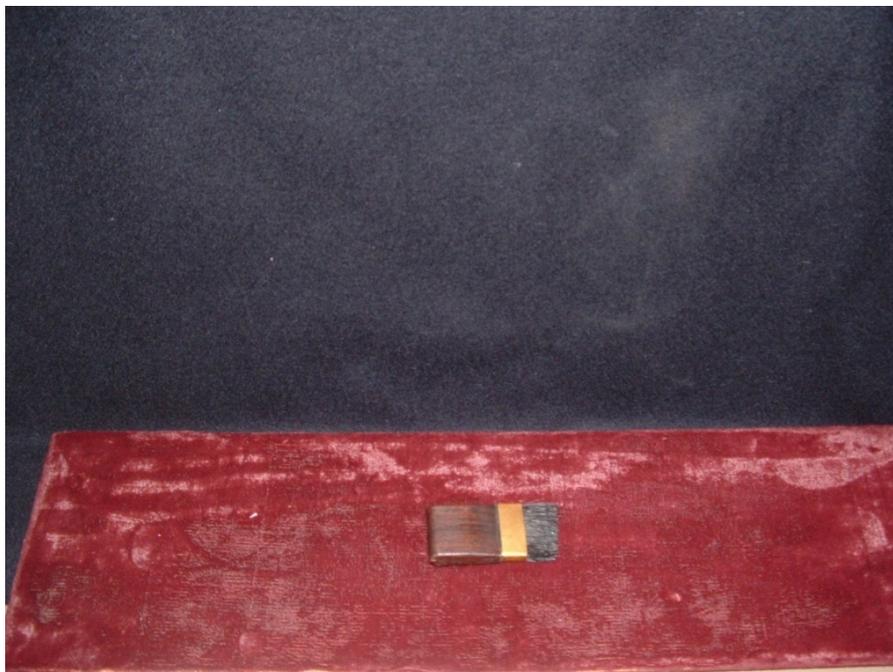

Probe - Used to locate foreign objects in wounds; metal or bone.

Tenaculum - Used for seizing and holding body parts during surgery, such as arteries etc.

Tourniquet- Used to compress arteries above the cut during amputations.

Bone Brush- Used to remove bone saw dust from the cutting site.

Amputating Knife- Used for cutting or incising soft tissue during amputations.

Catlin- Small double edged knife used in amputations.