

Pathways to Equality: Traveling History Classroom

This traveling trunk contains everything needed to provide an educational experience for your class about the First Women's Rights Convention, the reform movements, and the people that made the convention a success. It includes lessons with document based questions and hands-on opportunities. It is designed for 4th and 5th grade classes, but might also be used at the middle school level as well as by scout and youth groups.

Included in the traveling trunk are:

- Lessons with document based questions
- Images and primary documents
- Two CDs with PDF files of the Images, Documents, and Lessons
- Reproduction Clothing and items
- Park Orientation film "Dreams of Equality" on DVD
- Age-appropriate books for use with the lessons

If you have any questions regarding the traveling trunk, want to reserve it for your group or class, or to arrange for shipping, please call 315-568-2991, ext. 3002, or e-mail: david_malone@nps.gov .
