

MERCED AND TUOLUMNE RIVERS

Draft Comprehensive River Management Plans and Environmental Impact Statements

Mariposa Public Meeting
March 7, 2013

Wild and Scenic Rivers Act of 1968

- Protects free-flowing condition
- Protects water quality
- Protects and enhances the river's Outstandingly Remarkable Values (ORVs)– the qualities that make the river worthy of special protection
- Requires management plans to be completed to provide long-term guidance

A scenic landscape featuring a calm river in the foreground, reflecting the surrounding environment. The background consists of steep, rocky mountains with patches of green vegetation and several tall, slender evergreen trees. The sky is clear and blue. The overall scene is peaceful and natural.

“Each [river] will be managed to protect and enhance the values for which the river was designated, while providing for public recreation and resource uses which do not adversely impact or degrade those values.”

Merced River Plan Facilities Analysis

5 “To illustrate the level of degradation already experienced in the Merced and maintained under the regime of interim limits proposed by NPS, we need look no further than the dozens of facilities and services operating within the river corridor, including but not limited to, the many ...

-- (Friends of Yosemite v. Kempthorne, 9th Circ., 2008)

... swimming pools, tennis courts, mountain sports shops, restaurants, cafeterias, bars, snack stands, and other food and beverage services, gift shops, general merchandise stores, an ice-skating rink, an amphitheater, a specialty gift shop, a camp store, an art activity center, rental facilities for bicycles and rafts, skis and other equipment, a golf course and a dining hall accommodating 70 people.”

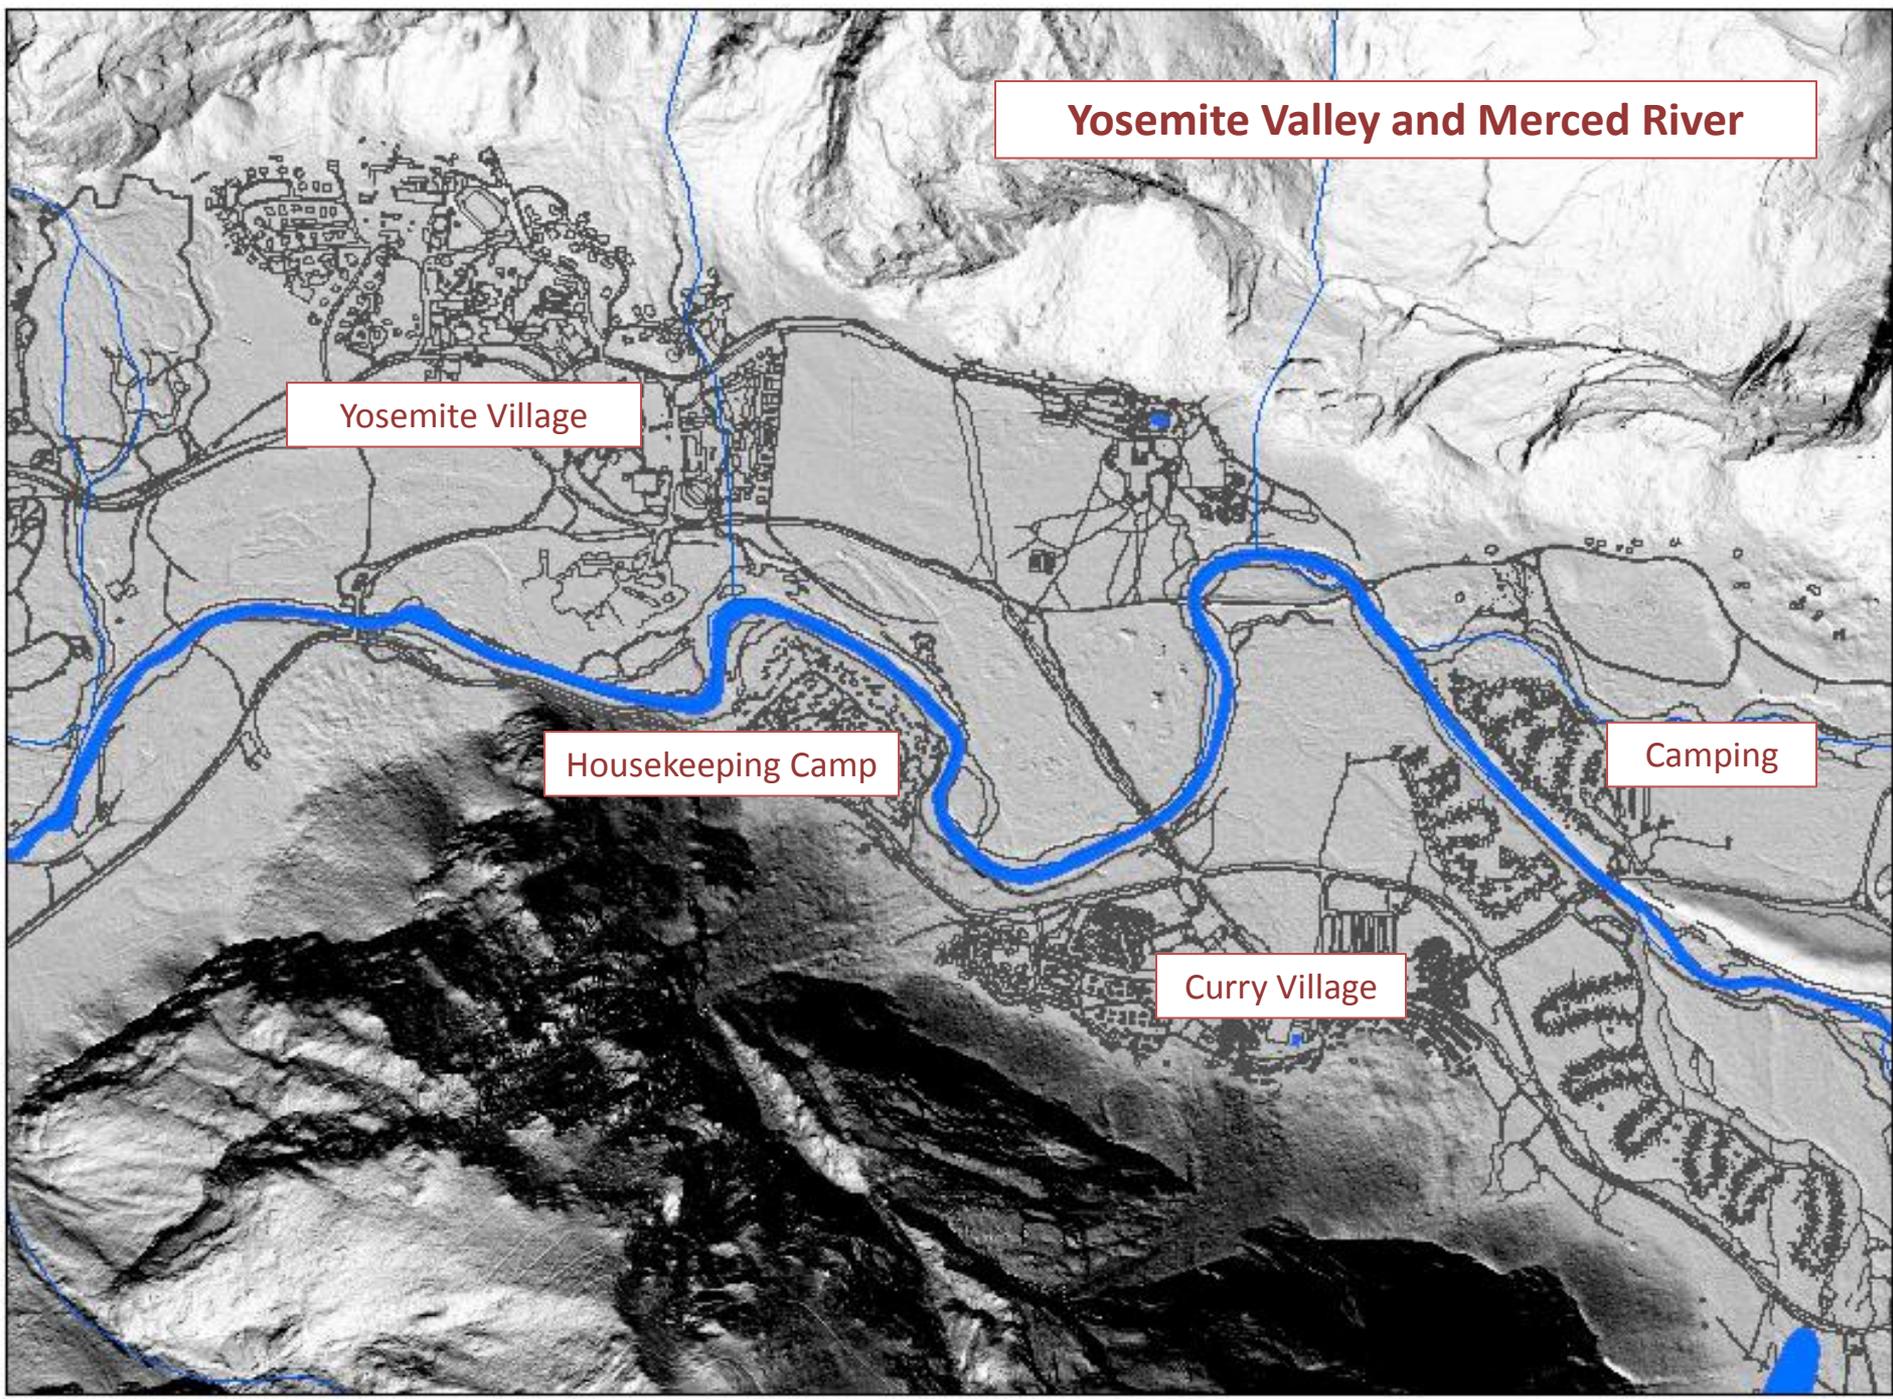

Yosemite Valley and Merced River

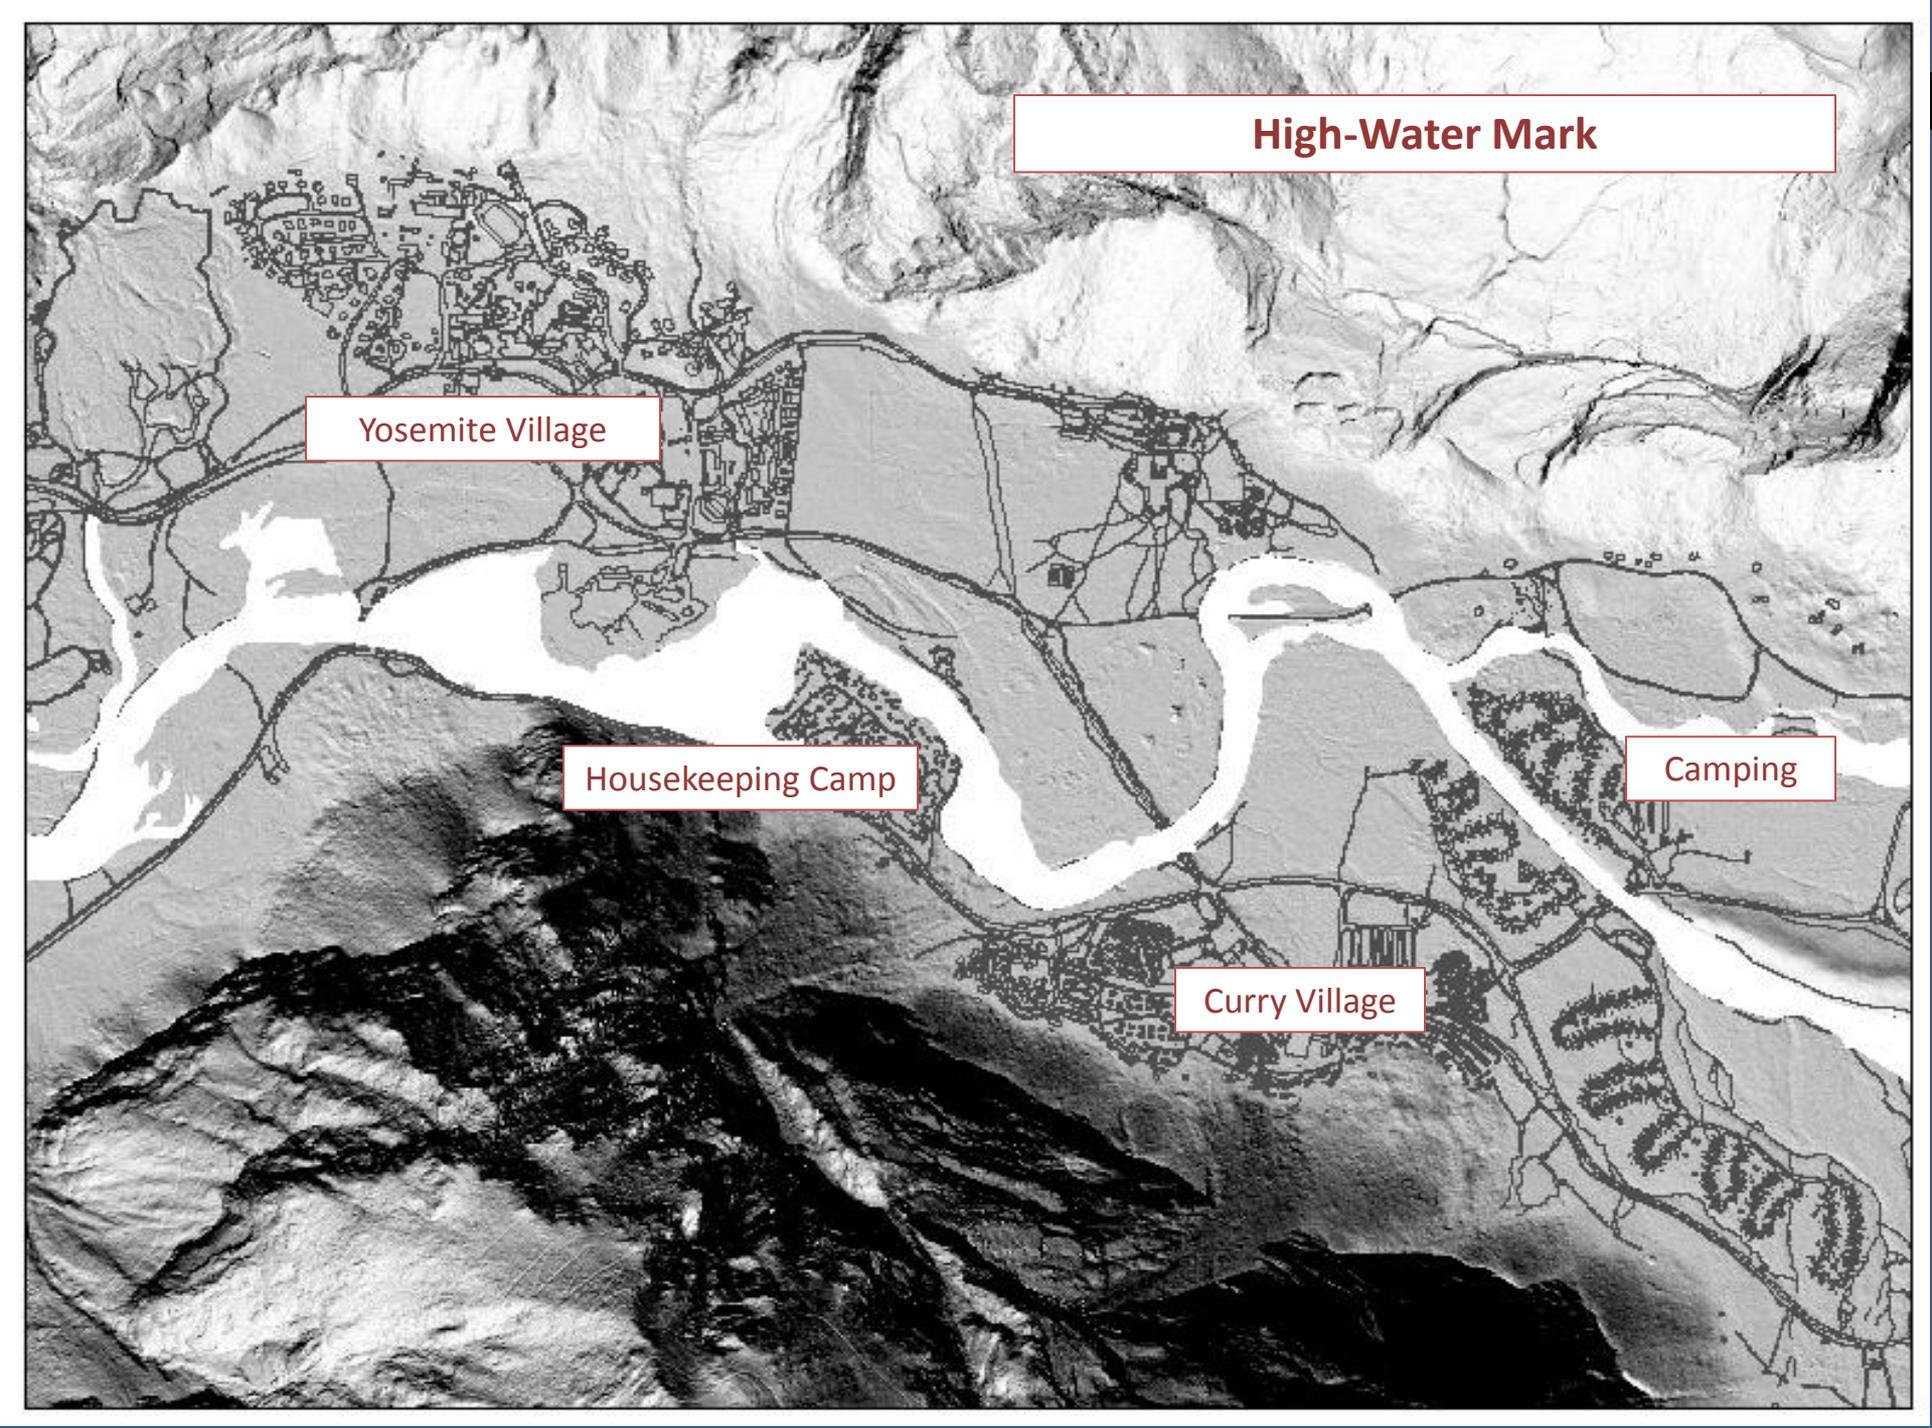

Yosemite Village

Housekeeping Camp

Curry Village

Camping

Curry Village

Yosemite Village

Housekeeping Camp

Curry Village

Camping

A topographic map showing a river valley. A white, irregularly shaped area highlights a specific section of the valley. The map features contour lines, a river, and several small clusters of buildings. Labels in red-bordered boxes identify key locations: 'Yosemite Village' on the left, 'Curry Village' on the right, 'Housekeeping Camp' in the center of the white area, and 'Camping' on the right side of the white area. A title box at the top right reads 'Quarter-Mile River Corridor Boundary'.

Draft Preferred Alternative

- Ensures that the experiences enjoyed by generations of families are sustained over time.
- Provides visitors the choice of accessing Yosemite Valley by private vehicle or transit.
- Reduces traffic congestion and crowding with organized and efficient day-use parking.
- Creates a sense of arrival by redesigning the primary day-use parking area and removing industrial and administrative functions.
- Improves circulation, reduces congestion and provides for a more relaxed visitor experience.

Merced River Plan

Criteria for Project Prioritization

Priority Projects seek to accomplish four major goals:

1. Correct identified impacts to river resources to ensure continued protection
2. Alleviate crowding and congestion and provide for easy access to key park facilities and shuttles
3. Enhance camping opportunities and winter lodging
4. Replace temporary non-code compliant employee housing

Conceptual Implementation/Phasing

Phase 1

- River Meadow Restoration (Various Projects)
- Improve Sense of Arrival in East Valley (Garage and GO Removal, Replacement Parking at North End, Camp 6 Retrofit, Roundabout, Intersection Redesign)
- Create Code-Compliant Winter Lodging at Curry
(Replace tent cabins in Boystown)
- Create Vehicle Staging Area in West Valley
- CAMP 4 Campground Site Expansion
- Provide Underpass for Safe Pedestrian Access to YOSE Falls

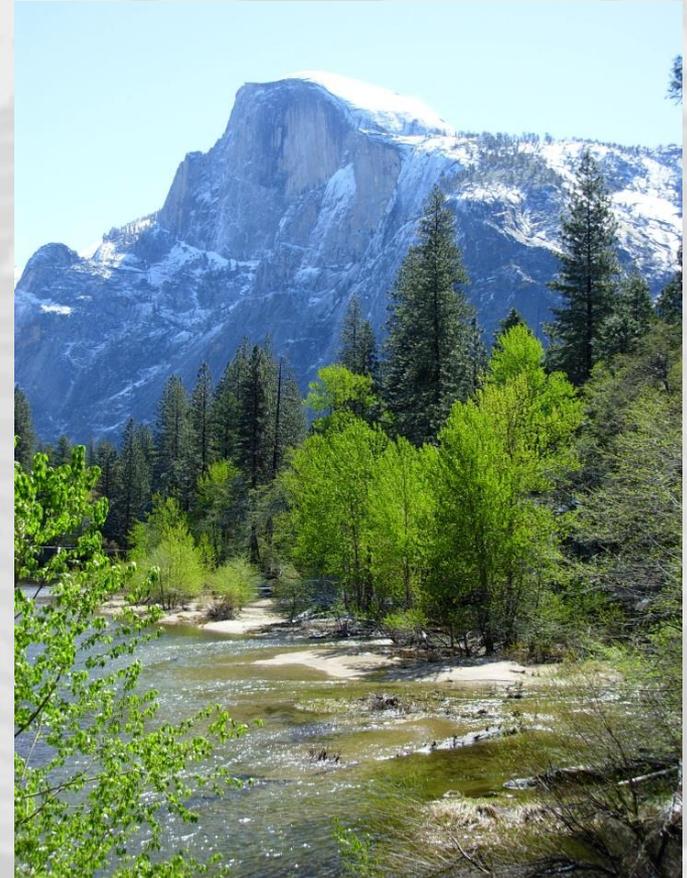

Phase 2

- Replace Camping - Upper Pines Loop
- Replace Camping - Upper/Lower Rivers, Eagle Creek
- Replace Temp Concession Housing (Huff House)
- Replace Temp Concession Housing (Yosemite Lodge)
- Create Out-of-Valley Parking at El Portal
- Replace Temp Concession Housing (Lost Arrow)
- Relocate Wawona Maintenance Facility
- Replace Valley Housing with El Portal/Rancheria In-fill
